A Point on Which all Physicians Agree.

Out of ten thousand regular physicians you cannot find one who will not say that stimulants and invigorants are absolutely necessary in medical practice. And yet in bygone years humane practitioners have hesitated to administer them, because the fiendish ingenuity of wretches who make merchandise of human infirmities had so polluted and deteriorated them that the remedy was deemed as dangerous as the disease. This perplexity is happily done away with. Physicians know, because the first analytical chemists of the age have demonstrated the fact, that Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters are absolutely and entirely free from all pernicious elements. Hence they have been introduced into the United States Army, and are accepted, wherever the testimony of the wise, the intelligent and the philanthropic is rated at its just value, as the best protective against and cure for all diseases arising from impurity in the air or other unhealthy climate influences, that has ever been tested by experience. In cases of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, we state without qualification or reservation, that the Bitters are as nearly infallible as anything prepared by human skill can be.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 64 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Fourth street.

The Case of Semmes.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—A Tribune special says: Colonel E. R. Goodrich, formerly in charge of the New York Militia Agency in Washington, was on the 1st instant relieved by order of Gov. Fenton, but allowed to retain full rank and pay until April 1st. Col. J. E. Lee, formerly captain of the 14th Independent Battery is at present acting as State agent. Since its establishment this bureau has been of inestimable value in relieving the wants and settling the claims of New York soldiers, and the necessity for its continuance will probably exist for two years to come.

Gen. Spinner on Saturday mailed to Europe for collection, three captured drafts of £50 each, drawn by Col. Harrison, of Jeff. Davis' military family, to the order of Secretary Trenholm, and by him endorsed upon Brown, Shepley & Co., the rebel bankers of Liverpool. Several captured English drafts have heretofore been sent forward for collection but returned with the endorsement of no funds. As the Government has knowledge that these are good, the action of the Liverpool Bankers is awaited with special interest.

The Herald's Washington special says: A rumor has gained circulation in Washington that if the Freedmen's Bureau bill shall pass in the House of Representatives in the same shape that it was received from the Senate the President will issue a proclamation declaring the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus restored in all the border States.

The Tribune's special says: It having been represented to United States Treasurer Spinner that a number of National banks, located in cities where clearing houses are in operation, have estimated deposits subject to duty from the balances after exchanges at the clearing houses, and not from the balances at the close of the day as required by the regulations, he has issued a circular letter to the Cashiers of the National Banks in such localities, in which he says that the former method cannot be accepted as correct, and requests them to inform him whether, in making up the semi annual return of their banks for the six months preceding January 1st, 1866, they estimated the average of deposits from the balances at the close of the day from the balances after the exchanges at the clearing houses.

In conclusion, the Treasurer requests, in the event that the regulations in this respect were not complied with by them, that an additional return be furnished, which shall contain a statement of the average deposits, estimated from the balance of deposits at the close of the day, in excess of the average of balances so returned, as made up after the exchanges at the clearing House, and that they remit to his office an amount equal to one-quarter of one per cent. on such differences of computation.

The Second Comptroller has decided that non-commissioned officers mustered out on the consolidation of regiments, before the reduction of the army commenced, are only entitled to the installments of bounty which accrued while they were in service.

The bodies of the Union soldiers who were killed in the skirmishes near Falls Church, in 1861, are being disinterred for re-burial in the soldiers' cemetery at Washington.

The World's Washington special says: The United States Consul at Honolulu informs the Department of State that one hundred seamen captured on an American whale ship by the pirate Shenandoah, landed on Ascension Islands and reached Honolulu en route to the United States.

Generals Grant, Sherman, Thomas and Meade, who have been considering all of the military bills before Congress, have returned them to Senator Wilson, Chairman of the Senate Military Committee, with their suggestions in recommendation. The increase of the army has been materially changed by these officers. They seem opposed to giving them any show whatever, for incorporation in the regular army. The other suggestions look to a perfection of the regular army bill, and will probably be adopted by the Committee.

The bill for the reorganization of the State Militia meets the full approval of the officers. They also approve of the West Point bill. It proposes to increase the number of Cadets one hundred and fifty, giving to each State two, with seventy-five to be selected from among the sons of soldiers who fell in defense of their country.

The Times' Washington special says: The President and cabinet have had under consideration the argument of Semmes claiming the right to be discharged under the Sherman-Johnson parole, but have come to no definite conclusion thereon. Until this matter is disposed of there will be no detail for a court to try Semmes, and there is a bare probability that the trial may be postponed.

ADVICES FROM NEW ORLEANS.

FORCES OF MILITARY DEPARTMENTS.

Regiments and General Officers Mustered Out.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4.—The weather is unusually cold; thermometer, 47 deg.

The steamers Flag, Star of the Union, and Fung Shuey, sailed for New York on the 25th ult.

The military force of Texas consisted nineteen regiments of infantry, five of cavalry one company of pontooniers, and three batteries of artillery; the Department of Louisiana, ten regiments of infantry, three of cavalry, and one of artillery; the Department of Florida, five regiments of infantry, and six batteries of the 5th regular artillery.

A military committee has been organized at Mobile to inquire into the late guerrilla raid upon the steamer Belfast.

The True Delta's Brazos letter of the 31st says: To-day Generals Weitzel, Smith and Clarke will be mustered out. Five regiments will be mustered out in thirty days. Peace prevails along the Rio Grande.

The Ranchero says: One Colonel Adolfo Garcid was arrested on the Texas shore for stealing fifty thousand dollars worth of goods in Bagdad. He gave bail in the sum of $5,000.

ADDITIONAL FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

New Screw Rams Completed.

A SWORD DUEL FOUGHT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Africa's mails were delivered in this city yesterday. The following is additional to the news telegraphed from Halifax:

A fine screw ram, built by Messrs. Laird Bros., has sailed from the Mersey for Valparaiso. She is a sister vessel to the ram now lying in the Thames for the Chilian Government. The ram built by Messrs. Laird is called the Oscar; that built in the Thames the Minerva.

Notwithstanding the announcement that Baron Laillard had left Paris for the purpose of making arrangements for the return of the French troops from Mexico, it is certain that orders yet unrevoked, and which are preparing to be acted upon in Toulon, prescribe the sending out of 2,000 or 3,000 more troops.

A duel has taken place at St. Germain between Prince Achille Murat and M. Rochefort, a writer in the Figaro. The casus belli arose out of an article published in the Figaro of January 7th, on the evidence given by Prince Achille Murat, in Miss Cora Pearl's horse case. The Prince challenged the journalist, and a meeting was speedily arranged. The seconds of Prince Achille Murat were St. Gerome Bonaparte Patterson and M. Espelletta; those of M. Rochefort were M. Taxile Delord, of the Scribe, and M. Plunkett, manager of the Palais Royal Theatre. The duel was fought with swords in a riding school. It lasted only a few seconds. The Prince's shirt was torn by the point of his adversary's sword, and M. Rochefort received a slight wound in the hip. The seconds then declared honor satisfied, and the affair terminated.

Kansas Legislature—Resolution Endorsing the President's Policy Tabled.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Tribune has a special from Topeka, Kansas, dated the 3d, which says: Yesterday the Senate bill appropriating the 500,000 acres of land was defeated in the House. The federal resolutions endorsing President Johnson's policy were laid on the table, with two dissenting votes.

This morning concurrent resolutions were introduced into the House asking Congress to submit an amendment of the constitution prohibiting the re-election of the President.

Fire at Oswego.

ALBANY, Feb. 4.—A fire in Oswego this morning, on the west side of 1st street, destroyed the dry goods stores of Morris Chase, and Thos. Moore; Allen and Burchard, leather dealers; J. H. Goldeny, exchange office; lawyer's offices, and the music hall. The loss on buildings was about $40,000; and the loss on goods, &c., is large, but the amount is not stated.

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE.

International Law on Privateering.

GIRARDIN ON THE MEXICAN QUESTION

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—A diplomatic correspondence of somewhat important character, as affecting the relation of belligerents at sea, has passed between the British Ambassador at Madrid, and the Spanish government. The British Minister protested, on the part of his government, against the Spanish order, that all crews of Chilian privateers, not of Chilian birth, should be treated as pirates, which they considered to be contrary to to the international law.

M. De Castro, Spanish Minister, neatly retorted that British ideas of international law were not always in accordance with the views of the most distinguished oracles on the subject. M. De Castro further upholds the policy pursued by Admiral Pareja, and reminds Sir John Crampton that England herself declared as far back as 1794, by her treaty with the United States, that the subjects of either nation, exercising privateering against either of them, were pirates.

The Paris Journal des Debats contains a column article from the able pen of M. Girardin, recapitulating the history of the Mexican expidition, and terminating with an earnest call to withdraw the French troops at once.

The general tenor of the above article went to show that the feeling of the people of the United States was strongly hostile to Maximilian and that the Government of the United States, while constantly reiterating this fact in its official communications to the French Government, had constantly abstained from menace; that the language of the American Government had been as conciliatory and as free from menace in 1866, after their victory over the rebellion, as in 1863, at the moment of their greatest internal strife; that in all this, both the Government and the people of the United States had shown that although deeply offended by the Mexican expedition, and although hostile to the continuance of the French flag in Mexico, they nevertheless desired to remain friends with France, and were willing to forbear to the uttermost, in order to give the Emperor time to make full trial of the experiment, and to retire without being menaced.

The Virginia Senate has adopted resolutions cordially approving the course of President Johnson on the question of reconstruction. They do not desire to review what has been so conclusively determined, nor to permit any one subject to their control to violate any of their obligations to the United States government.

The Charleston Courier reports the maltreatment of a party of Pennsylvanians who visited Johnson's Island January 29th for the purpose of buying lands, by a party of negroes. They were taken into custody and threatened with death, until finally relieved by the Sergeant.

At a meeting of the stock holders of the Columbian Marine Insurance Company to-day, it was stated that eight hundred policies had been cancelled since Saturday, the notes of the holders being returned on their payment, as a pro rata premium for the time the risk had run. A resolution was adopted, calling on the present receivers to resign, and a committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the company.

A Fortress Monroe letter says: A set of furniture for the office of the Secretary of the Navy is to be made from the remnants of the Merrimac.

The Herald's Paris letter states there was great anxiety about the anticipated speech of Napoleon at the opening of the Chambers on the 22d ult. The Emperor was desirous of ignoring the matter entirely in his speech, but in deference to the unanimous advice of the Cabinet had consented to touch upon it, and the supposition was that he would promise the withdrawal of his troops from Mexico at the earliest practicable period within the year at least.

The correspondent also gives an account of a grand ball at the Tuilleries. Among our countrymen, the one receiving the most attention from their Majesties was Gen. Schofield To the General the Emperor expressed his pleasure at meeting him, and told with what interest he had followed the march of Sherman, and to Minister Bigelow he passed very neat compliments on the beauty of American ladies.

TAX ON SOUTHERN MANUFACTURES.

Official Report on the Cattle Plague.

VACCINATION AS A PREVENTIVE.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 5.—The Secretary of the Treasury has issued the following circular:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, }
February 2, 1866. }

On September 10, 1865, an order was issued by this department, under the power conferred by Section 46 of the Internal Revenue Act of June 30, 1864, directing that articles manufactured in the States lately in insurrection, prior to the establishment of Collecting Districts therein, but retained in possession of the manufacturer until after such establishment, and thus made liable to the current rates of taxation, should be held free from present assessment until transported beyond the limits of the above mentioned States, and should then be subjected only to the tax due at the time of their manufacture.

The reasons for this exemption were stated briefly at the time of its allowance. It was induced by the fact that manufacturers had, in ignorance of the law, retained large quantities of their products in their own hands, and by the supposed additional fact the property so retained had greatly deteriorated in value. Abundant opportunity having been given for the disposal of these manufactures, there is no reason for continuing a privilege inconsistent with the general provisions of the law, adverse to the interests of Northern manufacturers, and susceptible, as experience has shown, of very great abuse. It is, therefore, hereby ordered that on and after March 1st, 1866, all Southern manufactures in the hands of the manufacturers shall be held subject to the present rates of duty, no objection being made in any case on account of the date of the manufacture.

(Signed) H. McCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury.

The United States Consul at Liverpool reports to the Department of State under date of January 12th, 1866, the loss of three American vessels, the Harry of the West, the Meridian and the Tigress, and the rescue of their crews.

From the dispatches of our Consul at Liverpool, dated January 20th, 1866, we learn that the cattle scourge is rather on the increase than otherwise. He says that during the week previous to date, nine thousand two hundred and eighty-three cases were reported to the authorities. Thus far upwards of seventy thousand cattle have either died with the plague or been killed after taking it. The Consul says this in reality forms but a small proportion of the actual loss, for hundreds of cases are never reported, and thousands are enlightened prematurely, and hurried to market before the plague attacks them.

Vaccination is being tried as a preventive. It is probably too soon, however, to report definitely upon its success, but there seems to be no doubt that the experiments, as far as they have gone, have been favorable. The High Sheriff of Cheshire vaccinated ten cattle and exposed them to the plague, and thus far they have not taken it.

The United States Consul at La Rochelle reports to the Department of State, under date of January 18, that a terrific tempest was raging off the coast of France, at the date of this dispatch, and three shipwrecks came into the port of La Rochelle, one English, one French and one Austrian.

The following appointments were confirmed by the Senate in executive session to-day: Wm. P. Kellogg to be Collector of Customs for New Orleans; Brevet Major General Price, Acting Paymaster General, to be Paymaster General, with the rank of Colonel. A multitude of brevet appointments in the volunteer servies, numbering between 3,000 and 4,000 of all grades from Second Lieutenant to Colonel, were also confirmed.

A. T. STEWART'S LIBEL CASE.

Terms of Canadian Reciprocity.

OUTRAGE ON PENNSYLVANIANS AT CHARLESTON.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Stewart libel suit against Knapp & Colburn came up to-day in the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Knapp expressed himself desirous of making further retraction of the matter published than he had already done, and Mr. Stewart was willing to give him sufficient time in which to have the matter corrected, and consented to have the case indefinitely postponed.

The case of Colburn will be brought to the notice of the grand jury without delay. This is his desire, as he has waived a preliminary examination, and prefers to stand his trial.

A New Haven freight car ran into a passenger car on the Fourth Avenue railroad to-day, demolishing the car and killing two horses. The passengers jumped from the car, and no one was injured.

The Post's Washington special says the Ways and Means Committee will hold a special meeting this afternoon for the further consideration of the Reciprocity Treaty. There is no prospect that they will recommend a new treaty on the extension of the present one but it is probable that reciprocal legislation will be approved upon the following basis: The tax on distilled spirits in Canada and this country to be similar, so as to prevent smuggling. Navigation to be open, the locks of the Welland Canal to be enlarged, and tolls the same to all parties. Importations from Canada to be taxed here, so that they should possess no advantage over our own products, and the free ports to be abolished.

John Roberts, champion of Great Britain, Dudley Kavanaugh and Melvin Foster, with other billiard celebrities, leave this evening to take part in the Memphis billiard tournament at which Mr. Roberts will make his first appearance in America, they purpose making a tour through the West and South afterwards Mr. Charles Norcliff accompanies them as business agent.

Amendment to Constitution of Virginia

RICHMOND, Feb. 5.—The Senate to-day passed the House amendments to the State Constitution, after reducing the required period of residence in the State to two years and striking out the clause requiring voters to pay a tax.

The House passed a bill authorizing a railroad from Lynchburg to Danville.

XXXIXth CONGRESS--FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, February 5, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Doolittle stated that he would have voted for the bill to guarantee civil rights had he been in the Senate on Friday when the vote was taken.

Mr. Wilson presented the petition of Gen. Sheridan and other officers for an increase of pay. The petition was referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Howard presented a petition of the citizens of Detroit, asking for a protective tariff. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Chandler, from the Committee on Commerce, reported the House bill to prevent the issue of American registers to vessels whose owners procured foreign registers during the war, and asked that it be passed immediately.

Mr. Sherman asked that the bill lie over until to-morrow, as it was very important, and it was so ordered.

Mr. Foote offered a resolution which was adopted, calling on the Secretary of War for the report of General Roberts setting forth his views as to the best mode of reclaiming the swamp lands in the basin of the Mississippi.

Mr. Ramsey, of Minnesota, presented a memorial from the citizens of Minnesota asking for the establishment of a Bureau of Education at Washington, to have charge of the educational interests of the country and to establish common schools in every part of the Union.

Mr. Clarke, from New Hampshire, from the Committee on Claims, reported adversely upon several petitions for compensation for losses caused by the invading armies in Virginia and elsewhere.

Mr. Nye, of Nevada, called up a bill for the relief of Paymaster Rittenden, of the Pacific squadron to indemnify him for the loss of Government funds stolen from his safe.

In the decision of the above measure, Mr. Wilson, who opposed it, stated that the Government had lost more than a quarter of a million through the negligence of paymasters since the commencement of the war. He thought it best to hold every one of them to a strict account, and not set a bad precedent at this time, when there are were so many settlements with paymasters being made.

Pending the discussion in the above, Mr. Fessenden said: I gave notice that on Monday I would ask the Senate to proceed to the consideration of the joint resolution for an amendment to the Constitution reported by the Committee on Reconstruction, and as I understand that the Senator from Massachusetts is prepared to speak on that measure, and other gentlemen understood he is to do so today, I shall make a motion that all further consideration of this bill be postponed until Tuesday, and that we proceed to the consideration of the joint resolution.

Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, spoke of the necessity of taking action on the bill for the admission of Colorado.

Several Senators replied that bill for the admission of Colorado could be taken up at any time.

The joint resolution was then read proposing the following amendment:

"ARTICLE ——, Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. Provided, that whenever the elective franchise shall be denied or abridged on account of color, all persons of such race or color shall be excluded from the basis of representation."

Mr. Sumner took the floor, and after a few introductory remarks, called for the reading of the following propositions offered by him as a substitute for the above joint resolution:

WHEREAS, It is provided that the Constitution of the United States shall guarantee to every State in the union, a republican form of government, and

WHEREAS, By reason of the failure of certain States to maintain a government which Congress can recognize, it has become the duty of the United States, standing in the place of guarantor when the principal has made a lapse, to secure to each State according to the requirement of the guarantee, a government republican in form; and whereas further, it is provided in a recent constitutional amendment, that Congress may enforce the prohibition of slavery by appropriate legislation, and it is important to this end that all relics of slavery should be removed, including all restriction of rights on account of color. Now, therefore, to carry out the gravity of a republican form of government, and to enforce the prohibition of slavery, be it

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives, &c., That in the States lately declared to be in rebellion, there shall be no oligarchy aristocracy, caste or monopoly invested with privileges and powers, and there shall be no denial of rights civil or political, on account of color or race, but all persons shall be equal before the law, whether in the court room or at the ballot-box; and this statute made in pursuance of the constitution, shall be the supreme law of the land, anything in the constitution or laws of any such State to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. Sumner gave briefly his objection to the proposed Constitutional Amendment, which he characterized as nothing else than another compromise of humane rights, as if the country had not already paid enough in costly treasure, and more costly blood for such compromises in the past. It was wrong to admit in the Constitution the idea that man could hold property in man, and so also the kindred idea of inequality in race, and thus openly set at naught the first principles of the Declaration of the Independence, and the guarantee of a republican form of government.

There are four millions of citizens now robbed of all share in the Government of their country, when at the same time they are taxed directly or indirectly for the support of the Government, and this taxation is without representation. It is now proposed to recognize this as not inconsistent with constitutional rights and the guarantee of a republican government.

Speaking with a sincere deference for those valued friends from whom he differed, he submitted that the time had come at last, when all compromises of human rights should cease. Especially there should be no thought of a three handed compromise, which, after degrading the Constitution, renounced a beneficent power; and lastly, borrowing an example from the times of Pontius Pilate, hurried a whole race to sacrifice.

Mr. Sumner then proceeded to his argument on the powers of Congress to procure equal rights for all, and began by expressing a heart felt aspiration that the day might soon come when the States lately in rebellion could be received into the copartnership of political power and into the full fellowship of the Union.

He saw full well that it was vain to expect this day which was so much longed for until we had obtained that security for the future which was found only in the equal rights of all, whether in the court room or ballot-box. The powers of Congress on this subject were as ample as they were beneficent. From their special founts they flow, each sufficient for the purpose, all swelling into an irresistable current, and tending to one conclusion. First, the necessity of the case by which according to the analogy of the territories, disloyal States having no local government lapse under the authority of Congress, secondly, the rights of war which do not expire, or lose their grasp except with the establishment of all needful guarantees; thirdly, the Constitutional injunction to guarantee a Republican form of Government, and fourthly, the Constitutional amendment, by which Congress, in words of peculiar energy, is empowered to enforce the abolition of slavery, by appropriate legislation. All these powers lead to the jurisdiction of Congress over this whole subject. No matter which road you take, you arrive at the same point. The two first powers of Congress have already been discussed and exhausted. The latter have been less considered, and it was on these that he proposed to speak today.

He proposed, with the permission of the Senate, to show the necessity and duty of exercising the jurisdiction of Congress, so as to secure that essential condition, the equal rights of all, and he put aside at the outset that metaphysical question worthy the schoolmen of the Dark Ages, whether certain States were in the Union or out of the Union. This is a question of form, not of substance; of words only, and not of fact; for the substance is clear, and the facts are unanswerable.

All are agreed, according to the authority of President Lincoln, in his latest utterance before his lamented death, that these States have ceased to be in practical relation with the Union, and this is enough to sustain the jurisdiction of Congress, even without the plain words of the Constitution. The two separate texts, necessity and duty, commingle. If what is necessary is not always according to duty, surely duty is always a necessity. On the present occasion they unite in one voice for this great guarantee. It is at once a necessity and a duty. Glancing at the promises of the fathers, he should exhibit first, the overriding necessity of the times, and secondly, the positive mandate of the Constitution, compelling us to guarantee a republican form of Government.

Mr. Sumner continued at great length, and before he concluded, the Senate went into executive session and adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr Blaine introduced a bill, which was referred to the Committee on Reconstruction, providing for taking a census of the United States, prior to the first of October next.

Mr. Ross, of Illinois, offered a resolution for the amendment of the rules so that one day in the week should be devoted exclusively to public business, and be known as the white man's day.

On motion of Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, the resolution was tabled.

Mr. McClury, of Maryland, offered a resolution instructing the Reconstruction Committee to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill to levy contributions on the seceded States, to defray the expenses of keeping up a standing army to preserve the peace. A debate arising, the resolution went over.

Mr. Driggs, of Michigan, offered a resolution which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Reconstruction to take into consideration the subject of removing the National Capitol, in order that its site may be accommodated to the population, and greater security be rendered to the Legislature by removing it from the possible attacks of foreign enemies and domestic menace.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, introduced a bill to prescribe an oath for public officers and members of the bar, which is required to be taken by all officers, civil, military and naval, and in the case of every attorney, counsellor, solicitor or proctor, as follows:

"I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I have never, as a citizen or officer, member of the legislature or convention of any State, voted for, signed, or advocated the passage of any ordinance of secession, or voted for any measure of hostility to the United States; that I have never sought or held any office of the so called Confederate Government, other than merely ministerial, or below the rank of Colonel; that I have never voluntarily loaned or donated any money or property to said pretended government or invested in its bonds; that I have not, while an officer of the United States, aided, counseled, or encouraged any secession from, or war against the United States; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign or domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will at all times use my best endeavors to maintain the republican form of government in the State in which I am an inhabitant, and in the union of the United States, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office or profession in which I am about to enter. So help me God."

The penalty for perjury in this case is attached. The perjurer is made forever incapable of holding office. The bill was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Allison, of Iowa, introduced a bill to fix a standard of weights and measures to take effect, if possible, on the 1st day of July, 1867. The provisions of the bill fix all the various weights and measures in accordance, it is understood, with the French decimal system.

Mr. Kelso introduced a joint resolution, proposing a new article to the Constitution, as follows:

Article ——. Whenever any State within this Union, through its properly constituted authorities, and through the forms of law, shall attempt to absolve its citizens from their allegiance to the Government of the United States, and shall by force of arms resist the authority of the general Government, and shall be declared by the President of the United States to be in a state of rebellion, such State shall be considered as having forfeited all rights and privileges as a State, and as having reverted to the condition of a territory, subject like all other territories to the disposition of Congress, and the President shall immediately by proclamation, close the ports of entry to such State, and shall proceed to suppress such rebellion, and to hold such territory by military authority, until Congress shall have provided a government for the same.

Mr. Williams introduced the following joint resolution which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary:

Resolved, That it be proposed to the several States of the Union to amend the Constitution of the United States in the last clause of the 8th section of the 1st article thereof, so as to make the same read as follows:

"To make all laws that shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution all powers vested by the constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any department thereof, and enforcing all obligations, prohibitions or disabilities imposed thereby on the several States composing the same."

A resolution was adopted that the Ways and Means Committee inquire into the expediency of repealing the provision of the Revenue law allowing a majority of fines for infractions of the law to go the informer.

The Senate bill to protect all persons in their civil rights was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The Senate amendments to the bill making approropriations for pensions, were agreed to.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill to extend the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau.

Mr. Raymond stated that the letter from General Sherman to the President, had been given him for publication in his newspaper, relative to the negroes on the sea islands, and was furnished by a gentleman from South Carolina. It was not given for presentation to Congress, as inferred from the remarks of Mr. Chandler a few days since.

Mr. Raymond then spoke in favor of the bill.

The House resumed the consideration of the Senate bill to enlarge the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau.

Mr. Trimble, of Kentucky, opposed the bill for reasons set forth at length, regarding it as striking down the very foundation on which liberty rests, and abrogating the rights of the citizens of all the States.

Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, while supporting the bill, took occasion to reply to the gentleman who had just addressed the House, denouncing the wrong, oppression and crime which had been perpetrated, and the injury which the gentleman had defended.

Mr. Trimble wished to know whether the gentleman was personal in his remarks.

Mr. Grinnell replied that he applied them to state which the gentleman had defended, and while proceeding with his speech made use of the term—"Your President."

Mr. Randall asked what the gentleman meant by saying "your President."

Mr. Grinnell replied: The President, the genuine Union man, who said at Nashville that he would be the Moses to lead out the children of Israel.

Mr. Randall said he esteemed the President; he supported his policy, because it was calculated to restore the Union as of yore.

Mr. Grinnell replied that he had the honor of giving the President his vote, while the gentleman from Pennsylvania voted for he had long forgotten whom.

Mr. Grinnell said he was the President's friend, and read from some works of the President in favor of protecting the negro and securing him in honorable and useful employment. He then asked Mr Randall whether he approved of the Freemen's Bureau.

Mr. Randall replied that he did not know what the gentleman had said, but he endorsed the policy of the President who was actuated by patriotic motives alone, in his endeavors to restore the Union. The President did not recommend such a bill as this, which was in violation of the letter and spirit of the Constitution, and proposed to appropriate money without warrant of law.

Mr. Grinnell stated that President does endorse in substance the substance the bill.

Mr. Randall—Where is the proof?

Mr. Grinnell—In the language of the gentleman from Pennsylvania, I cannot reveal secrets. He then spoke of outrages committed upon freed people, and alluded to the receipt of a memorial from their friends in Maryland asking protection, and saying their school houses had been burned near enough to Washington for the flames to light up the capitol, and the people and their teachers driven away. It would be worse than barbarous to leave the freedmen where they now are.

Mr. McKee, of Kentucky, said those who opposed the bill are those who opposed every measure to crush treason. They proposed to continue tyranny and oppression and wrong while the nation desired to protect all people alike. When the President issued his proclamation calling for troops, it was denounced as a usurpation.

As for himself, he only stood on one side in the contest, and that was on the side of his country, and against treason and oppression, and, along with General Grant, said that both white and black mutually require the protection of the Government. This did not look like peace. Although Kentucky was not included in the proclamation declaring certain States in rebellion, she was the most rebellious of the whole crew. He declared that government shall be continued in loyal hearts against traitors and disloyal men. He defended the constitutionality of the bill, and said they had failed as yet to bring the chivalry as low down as they ought to be, in order that just rights might be given to their fellow men; the time had gone by when human beings could be treated as brutes by former masters.

Mr. Elliot, from the Committee on Freedmen's Affairs, offered several amendments to the pending bill, so as to provide that the establishing of the Bureau shall extend to refugees and freedmen in all parts of the United States, authorizing the President to divide the sections of country within which the privilege of the right of habeas corpus was suspended on February 1st, 1866, containing such refugees and freedmen, into districts, each containing one or more States, and not to exceed twelve in number. He said this amendment limited the jurisdiction of the Bureau, and confined it to the States where the writ is now suspended.

Mr. Elliot then proceeded to defend the bill. The objection which had been urged that this bill referred to the whole country, was removed, substantially, by the other amendments proposed by the Committee on Freedmen's Affairs. The five objections were applied to the Senate's bill, and not to the substitute now pending.

He then read from various official letters relating how freedmen had been persecuted, and as an argument for their protection, and from others to show how many white refugees had been relieved. It Atlanta, three hundred families of white refugees, it was stated, would suffer this winter, unless they are assisted by Government agents. To them, the latter had given transportation and rations. He demanded the previous question.

Mr. Stevens said the bill, as it stood, contemplated turning off the negroes at the end of three years from land on which they had been located by the government. He moved to strike out this objectionable clause.

Mr. Smith moved an amendment that none of the provisions of this act shall extend or be inforced in the State of Kentucky.

Mr. Stevens offered a resolution, setting apart evenings for general debate, and in pursuance of this the House took a recess till half past seven, for that purpose.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. Hubbell, of Ohio, made a speech to show that Abraham Lincoln, in his proclamation and other acts, contemplated the re-establishment of loyal State governments in the South at the earliest possible moment. He desired an amendment to the constitution to change the basis of representation from population to voters, or something equivalent, so as to conform to the new order of things, and afford ample and complete protection to freedmen.

Mr. Randall affirmed that the rebel States have never been out of the Union. To say so is to admit the right of secession, which we have been at war to prevent. He sustained the President in his declaration that States cannot commit treason, but individuals could.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, vindicated the policy of the Government in relation to the punishment of traitors.

The House then adjourned.

From New Orleans and Texas.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5.—The steamer Mary A. Benner, with eight hundred bales of cotton, was entirely burned on the 3d, at the mouth of Red River. The passengers and crew were saved.

All the merchants of Matamoras are trumping up claims to be presented for loss in the Bagdad affair, believing the United States will pay them all. It is reported Escobado is moving on Monterey.

The Mexican news is very unreliable. Fighting is taking place in every direction. There is a prospect of further forced loans in Matamoras.

EXPLOSION OF THE STEAMER CARTER.

Texas Reconstruction Convention.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 5.—The steamer Carter exploded her boiler thirty-five miles above Vicksburg, at four o'clock Friday morning. The boiler passed forward of the pilot house tearing away the forward part of the cabin. After the explosion the boat took fire and burned till seven o'clock, compelling all who had escaped death by explosion to jump into the river, and the boat soon after went down. Capt. Hurd had just gone off watch when the explosion occurred and was not afterwards seen. The steamer Evening Star picked up all the survivors floating on the water and carried them to Vicksburg. It is not yet known how many lives were lost.

A special to the Commercial, dated Austin, Texas, February 1st., says the President of the Texas Secession Convention has been elected to preside over the convention just assembled here to reconstruct the State Government. A large majority of delegates to the convention are secessionists.

The prospects on the Red River plantations were cheering. The freedmen were disposed to give better satisfaction.

Shreveport claims to have the largest cotton business of any inland city in the South. The receipts of goods there are very large, but do not meet the demand.

The Reciprocity Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—We are requested to say that the statement in any paper of Saturday of the proposals made by the Provisional delegates to the Committee of Ways and Means, with reference to the Reciprocity treaty, is, in many important particulars, incorrect and incomplete; and further, that no authorized statement can be given at this stage of the proceedings.

Danger of Using Tubular Boilers.

PROPOSALS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD, }
WASHINGTON CITY, January 6, 1866. }

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M., on FRIDAY, the 9th day of February, 1866, for supplying the Light-House Establishment with sixty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter-strained OIL, either Lard or Sperm, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the Government supply-vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons—not to exceed the latter. The oil may be delivered at Boston or New York, at the option of the bidders.

The place of delivery in each case must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 2d day of April, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 16th day of April, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 1st day of June, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 1st day of August, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Separate proposals will be received at the same time for 5,000 gallons of Colza or Lard Oil, to be delivered as above stipulated, at Detroit, Mich., on the 1st day of May, 1866.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter-strained oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character any quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and and other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60 deg. Fahrenheit, by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly, written out in full, the kind of oil offered, (whether sperm, lard or colza;) the rate per gallon, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other consideration than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guarantee to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for Oil for Light-houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board,
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
Secretary.

WEBSTER AND CLAY.

The National Review contains an article on DANIEL WEBSTER, which, though in the main just and discriminating, in particular passages allows personal admiration and partizan predilections to be foisted into the scale in such a manner as to pervert judgment.

Mr. WEBSTER was an original anti-slavery man. Reared in the inland wilderness of New Hampshire, his lonely communings with nature and with himself inspired him in his youth with an intense love of Liberty. This love animated his speeches at the bar, in the forum, and in the National Councils, until an insatiable but ungratified ambition for the Presidency, led him to lower his port, to bate his breath, to stoop the majesty of his imperial intellect, to palter, to equivocate, to turn back, to blot his life-long record, and to make a new one derogatory to his greatness, at variance with his conceptions of justice, and fatally damaging to his renown.

Lamentable was it when he who had spoken at Plymouth Rock, on Bunker Hill, and in the Senate Chamber, as brave and eloquent words for universal liberty as ever came from human lips, strangely forgot his glory, uncrowned his manhood, and trampled in the dirt the laurel with which his admiring countrymen had wreathed his brow. What confusion and shame mantled our faces when he solemnly counselled us "to conquer our prejudices" in favor of freedom; to acquire an alacrity in the "unpleasant duty" of hunting fugitive slaves; and when we turned over the new edition of his speeches and found he had repudiated the most of those glorious outbursts of impassioned oratory by which he had celebrated Freedom and enrolled himself among her chief votaries.

How had his memory stood to-day—how had it stood through all time in the history of the republic, and in the records of the progress of civilization throughout the world—had he remained true in his old age to the fragrant traditions of his early and middle years. The Review would have done better had it refrained from attempts at excusing the sad defection, or had it contented itself with walking backward and covering the lapse with the mantle of forgetfulness.

And yet, with Mr. WEBSTER's fate before them, with all its impressive warnings against delinquency to Liberty, there are even now American Statesmen who are making haste to wreck their hopes and reputations on the same rock that proved fatal to him. And there are journalists, too, who stand on eminences of observation, and professing admiration and friendship for particular statesmen, nevertheless beckon them on with deceitful gestures, to defections from honor, from duty, and from principle, for which there is no forgiveness either in this world or that which is to come.

In the Review's delineation of the political career of Mr. WEBSTER reference is made to his generous support of Mr. CLAY in 1844, when he had been bitterly disappointed in not obtaining for himself the presidential nomination. Incidentally it is averred that if all the men who opposed the annexation of Texas had "had the intelligence or the magnanimity to stand by their proper candidate, CLAY would have entered the White House." This is at least a misconception of essential facts. Mr. CLAY would have been elected, either if he had not known how to write, or if he had been so caged as to have put his use of writing materials out of the question. The anti-annexationists stood by him unanimously until a few days before the election, when his Alabama letter was printed and distributed over the North, in which he stated explicitly that he was not opposed to annexation, "but should be glad to see it," provided it could be done on certain conditions. By that letter he paralyzed thousands of his warmest northern supporters, gained not a single southern vote, and was overwhelmed.

Well do we remember the first time we saw and heard of that letter. Standing in a large concourse of Pennsylvanians, we were listening to a fiery and eloquent speech against annexation and in favor of the election of Mr. CLAY. A wily democrat, watching his opportunity, edged through the crowd, and handing Mr. CLAY's letter to the speaker, requested the reading of it, and an explication of its contents. The mercury of the orator's enthusiasm sank to zero. A chill ran through the crowd, and Mr. CLAY's true friends departed with bowed heads.

The waiters on Providence; those who care nothing for principle but everything for success; who watched the shifting currents of opinion, and always struck in lustily in the direction it seemed to them to run; the genteel conservatives, equally facile in sopping with Jesus or bargaining with Caiphas; did not care. They echoed the sentiments of the letter as the sublimation of statesmanship; prophesied that the Southern gain would outweigh the northern loss; insisted that the Radicals were fools to scruple concerning the morality of any position; and marched on with colors flying into the grave that opened wide its jaws to receive them. Unfortunately for the country, this evil brood had propagated their species, and their race is not yet extinct.

UNDER WHICH KING?—The Harrisburg Telegraph, on Thursday last, speaking of the debate in the Senate on the resolutions of Mr. LANDON, endorsing the action of our representatives in Congress, in voting for the free suffrage bill, and referring to the able speeches of Messrs. LANDON and BROWNE in favor of those resolutions, said:

> "The temper of the debaters was governed entirely by their sympathies for and against the country, for and against treason. Union Senators spoke as their friends fought during the war, in favor of the majesty, the purity, the justice and the sacred principles of free government. On the other hand, Democratic Senators took the ground occupied by the traitors during the war."

On Friday, referring to the speechs of Senator HALL, which, like those of the democratic Senators above alluded to, was against the resolutions, it said:

> "We repeat our commendations of Senator Hall's eloquent speech. Its temper and its sentiments will tell as powerfully on the minds of the loyal masses as it did on the judgment of loyal Senators."

This is blowing hot and cold, in one breath, with a vengeance.

THE Clarion Banner explains why the Hon. E. V. Culver, member of Congress from that district, is absent from the House. He accepted the nomination reluctantly to heal a controversy in the party, but against his personal interests. He holds [illegible] division [illegible] to be so close as to make his presence desirable.

While we respect Mr. Culver and his motives in this case, we do not like that way of discharging public duties.

MAJOR GENERAL THOMAS.

The republic has three soldiers whose services during the rebellion have elicited evidences of warmer popular appreciation than the one whose name we have written. It has no soldier who has served with more fidelity, courage, capacity and uniform success. Lacking in certain elements of dash and brilliance, for which some others are distinguished, there is in him nevertheless a wariness, a prescience and a mastership of situations, which have made him particularly fortunate and valuable. Thrice, when holding subordinate positions, he saved the Army of the West from annihilation. Acting as chief-in-command he won several triumphs unsurpassed in thoroughness and importance.

It so chanced that in the fall of 1864, when he was falling back on Nashville, we were journeying in Southern Illinois. There were abundant indications in the newspapers that the authorities at Washington and the whole Northern public were unfavorably affected by his retrograde movement. On the railroad cars were scores of officers, of all ranks, who had been furloughed to go home to the election, and were seeking to rejoin Gen. Sherman, who had given them the slip by sundering his connection with his base of supplies, and heading for Savannah. Among these officers there was a wonderful agreement in the belief that whatever Gen. Thomas was doing was the best that could possibly be done under the circumstances surrounding him. At last came the news of his great victory, demonstrating his wisdom and competence, and the reasonableness of the confidence reposed in him.

There is another peculiarity in General THOMAS. He is modest and self-abnegating. He never swaggers, a blemish that gentlemen scrupulously avoid, but which some officers delight in. He has studiously refrained from public receptions; and when measures were concerting to present him a family mansion as a testimonial of appreciation, he modestly declined the offer.

He has still another claim to consideration. He is a Southern man. Born in Virginia, he listened to no sectional seductions and allurements. He consented not for a moment to the dogma that paramount allegiance is due to the State, and a secondary allegiance to the nation. Always faithful, courageous and competent, the republic has not, on its roll of military honor, a brighter name than his.

GEN. L. C. BAKER.

When Substitute Brokerage, by the infamy of the means resorted to, became absolutely odious to everybody except the persons directly concerned therein, this man was appointed Chief of the Government Detectives, for the purpose of ferretting out the rascals who were engaged in the iniquity. If all the reports concerning him are true, there are certainly good reasons why he should not have been employed. But he did something to abate the evil.

After the substitute business played out, at the close of the war, BAKER started after the Pardon Brokers, and seems to have run before he was sent. He overhauled, among others, a gay and handsome young woman, named Mrs. L. L. COBB, at Washington, who was driving a lucrative traffic in the procurement of pardons. For this he was prosecuted, and convicted of false imprisonment in detaining her. In addition, he was mustered out of service, and had superadded other evidences that he had fallen out of favor. He had stepped on some powerful man's toes—whose we do not know, and shall not undertake to conjecture. BAKER knows, and he would do the public valuable service by bringing forward all the facts in his possession, relative to the matter.

Substitute brokerage was bad enough; but there are many symptoms that the Pardon brokerage is not a whit behind in infamy. Men who claim eminence, who fill high public stations and move in the best social circles, are concerned in it. Women, in the hight of personal charms and fascinations, resort to it as a calling. The manner in which these people gain influence over Secretaries, heads of Bureaus, lacqueys about the Departments and the White House, and so get facilities for obtaining the signature of the President to pardons, is absolutely shameful. In this shame, as a matter of course, there is no distinction of political parties. Indeed, in certain official quarters, just now, Copperheads seem to be in greater favor than Republicans.

This traffic is reported to be again brisk. No doubt the conviction of Baker will quicken it yet more, as insuring a sort of impunity. Strongly as we object to a general amnesty to all concerned in the rebellion, we are not sure but it would involve less evil than is wrought by the current system of procuring pardons.

RECIPROCITY.

At the late election for members of the Canadian Parliament, Dr. CLARKE questioned the Hon. FERGUSON BLAIR, one of the candidates as to his intention of sanctioning the payment of large sums of money from the secret service fund to members of the Congress of the United States for their votes to re-establish the Reciprocity Treaty. In the colloquy it came out that Mr. BROWN the late Prime Minister, resigned because he would not sanction the corrupt use of public money. Mr. BROWN, in the Toronto Globe, of which journal he is editor, admits that this was the cause of his resignation.

What members of Congress have put themselves up for sale? How many dollars do they charge each for his vote? Let the people watch and see who so votes as to occasion suspicion.

CONFEDERATES IN MEXICO.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Cordova, in Mexico, under date of January 15th, gives an account of a visit he made to a Confederate settlement, ten miles from that city. Among the colonists are Gov. HARRIS, Gen. PRICE, Judge PERKINS, Gen. SHELBY, Gen. EWELL, and others of note. They have all taken the oath of allegiance to Maximilian; have confidence in the stability of his throne; have sent for their families; are apparently contented, and manifest less acerbity towards the United States than the rebels who have not emigrated.

SNYDER COUNTY.—Last fall the Union Representative Conferees of Union, Snyder and Lycoming counties, after nominating a representative ticket, appointed delegates to the next State Convention. The Republican Committee of Snyder county now insist that this appointment of delegates was unauthorized and void. They further appointed A. C. SIMPSON, Representative delegate, and named J. H. WRIGHT as Senatorial delegate.

SPRING ELECTIONS.—State election will be held in New Hampshire on the second Tuesday in March; in Connecticut on the second Monday in April; and in Rhode Island on the first Wednesday in April, of the present year.

PROSPECTS OF CHEAP BUTTER AND CHEESE.—Our country exchanges all bear testimony to the fact that there is a large amount of butter and cheese held in the interior for better prices. Many who were not satisfied with 45 or 50 cents per pound for their butter, hoping for still higher figures—are loth to accept of the decline of 10 cents. The prospects are, however, that the longer these parties hold off the less they will receive. Farmers who refused $1 per bushel for their potatoes in the fall, are now glad to obtain 60 cents per bushel. So it will be with the holders of provisions generally. The longer they keep out of the market the heavier will be their loss.—Buffalo Courier.

THE Petersburg (Va.) Index, which, all through and before the war, was one of the staunchest secession and rebel papers, reads the planters a wholesome lecture, and shows that they paid a great deal more for the labor of slaves, from six to ten years ago, than they are now willing to pay the freedmen. The Index now enters into a calculation to show that slave labor six years ago cost from four to five times as much as many are now willing to pay the freedmen, and though it thinks the freedmen will not do as much work as the slave did, yet it says no one will pretend that there is anything like this difference.

GENERAL NEWS.

AFFAIRS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—We learn from a private letter of a friend in North Carolina that "The poor people are paying their taxes quite willingly, but some of the rich men—the leading Rebels—refuse, believing that the President will, in some way, relieve them of all their taxation. They seem to flatter themselves that they are Mr. Johnson's 'Pet Lambs;' but I trust that some day they will wake up to find themselves most righteously mistaken. The mass of the people here are well-disposed, but easily led astray, while 'mighty mean men' stand ready to take the lead. God have mercy upon the South. She deserves remembrance in the 'prayers of all the churches.'"—Reconstructionist.

AN affray at a drinking saloon in Cleveland on Sunday morning, between two villains, for whom, among others, a gallows was recently erected by the Vigilance Committee, at Titusville, resulted in the death of one of them, named McCune, by a shot from a revolver in the hands of the other, "Stone-House Jack," of Buffalo. So fearful was the dying man of being known, that he was unwilling, for a time, that a dispatch should be sent to his friends, the dread of the consequences of former crimes prompting him to keep concealed as long as there was hope of recovery.

THE Washington County News says that in sinking an oil well on Dutch Creek, a Butternut, minus the hull, was found thirty feet below the surface.

That is very easily accounted for. It is probably one that sloughed off from the party on its way downward in 1864. Having no shell, he was probably a Vallandigentudendammer.—Ohio State Journal.

THE Baltimore Commercial Advertiser has an account of the great ice jam below Niagara Falls. In some parts of the river from Youngstown to the cataract, the ice was from fifty to eighty feet deep, and on Monday last many people crossed the river on foot near the "Devil's Hole" and over the "Whirlpool," a feat never before accomplished. At Youngstown and Niagara, parts of docks and wharves were carried away, involving serious loss.

EDUCATING NEGROES IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The superintendent of education in South Carolina, says: "In some parts of the State, I am happy to say that the residents favor the education of the blacks, and will put no obstacle in the way of such a benefit. But in others there is a disposition to oppose it, and that opposition comes in no more insurmountable a form than the prevention of the use of even empty buildings for "freedmen's schools."

S. S. BROOKS, Sr., died in Quincy, Illinois, on the 11th, ult. He was one of the oldest printers and publishers in the West. He founded in Cincinnati the first daily paper ever issued west of the Allegheny mountains. More than forty years ago he established a newspaper in Edwardsville. Some years later he was identified with journalism in this city. At other periods he conducted newspapers in Jacksonville, Alton, Lewiston, Peora and Cairo.—Cleveland Herald.

THE Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company having bought the Cleveland, Zanesville & Cincinnati Railroad line, it is thought that by finishing that line from Millersburgh to Zanesville, a distance of about forty miles, making a through line from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh via Orrville, that it would make equally as good a paying road as the Fort Wayne & Chicago.

THE lovely young Queen of Portugal, Maria Pia—second daughter of Victor Emanuel—is described as a sweet, graceful girl of nineteen—blonde and delicate looking, but of singularly well proportioned figure. Much prettier than her sister, Clothilde, she yet resembles her in the beauty of her snowy throat and chiseled shoulders.

THE "resurrecting" of twelve human bodies in Canada for dissection, is startling that little Province considerably. Two suspicious boxes shipped from Quebec were seized at Point Charles. On opening them there were found the bodies of five women and two men, packed in snow. These remains had been taken from cemetries at or near Quebec.

The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist calls the correspondent of the Boston Advertiser, "Dixon," a "hireling falsifier," a "penny-a-line Paul Pry," a "detestable marplot," a "devil," a "scoundrel," and a "vermiculous vampire," and then remarks that "it has described him "with angelic mildness."

IT is reported that the residents of the southern and southwestern parts of Arkansas are still very bitter and hostile to the Government. The agent of the Freedmen's Bureau there reports that if the protection afforded by it is not continued, the freedmen will be starved, murdered, or forced into a condition worse than slavery.

FOURTEEN thousand and sixty-two turkeys, eighteen thousand seven hundred and eight geese, one thousand six hundred, and one ducks, and two hundred and eighty-three tons of poultry, were delivered during the Christmas holidays at the London station of the Great Eastern railway.

DR. RANDOLPH, after five years experience as a medium, declares that spiritualism is one-third imposture, one third insanity, and one-third diabolism. He asserts that insanity is the usual fate of trance mediums.

A CORRESPONDENT writing in one of the leading "Metropolitan" dailies of one of our western cities, while speaking of the President's policy, and apologizing for his course, parodied a familiar quotation, thus: "Uneasy lies the head that sits in the Presidential chair!"

THE New York Observer asserts, on the authority of a Southern correspondent, that "the piety of the South was opposed to secession, but the clergy were generally in favor of it." Is not that rather hard on the clergy?

A Metallic Coffin.

The foreign news gives us a tale of horror. The "London" an iron vessel, which had started from Liverpool for Australia, sprung a leak when a short distance out, in a gale. Her hatches were not battened down, the water swept over them and into the engine rooms, the fires were put out, the pumps could not be worked, and with her colony of passengers—men, women and children, some shrieking, others praying, others clasped arm in arm, the ill-fated ship went down—an iron coffin in a watery tomb.

Perhaps such disasters are unavoidable. Possibly science has not yet taught ship-builders to rivet plates so strongly or weld them so firmly that they cannot be separated. Perhaps there is no way of covering engines from the salt water. But advocates of the wooden walls will not fail to see strength for their case in the fact that this craft went down with a plunge, like a knife cutting the waves, and that she was strained and lost in a gale which was ridden out safely by a cockle-shell, having nineteen persons on board.

There is a doubly sad incident connected with this dreadful story. Nineteen souls only, out of nearly three hundred, escaped from the ship, and were saved. They were all men, and sixteen of them stout sailors, members of the crew. These brutes unshipped the only available boat, crowded themselves into it, and put off—leaving more than a hundred women and children to suffer and die on board the ship.

In shining contrast to this despicable conduct was that of the captain of the ship. When the boat was about putting off, he stood on the quarter-deck. Some of the sailors called out for him to come with them. "No" he answered, "I will stand by the passengers to the last." And to the last he was at his post, standing calmly, with his arms folded across his breast, when the ship he could not save went under. Of such men are the records of immortal heroism made.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

France and Mexico.

It is expected that the opposition, small but compact and virulent, in the French Legislative Chambers, will lead off, when the session begins, with the first of a series of vehement attacks upon the Emperor's interference in Mexico. They affirm that it was as great a blunder as the invasion of Russia, in 1812, which led to the downfall of the first Empire. If M. Thiers, who is selected to head this raid on Napoleon, can produce a feeling throughout France that more blood and treasure will be necessarily expended by the continued support of Maximilian in Mexico, with the prospect of a war with the United States, he may undermine the prestige of Napoleon. A grave consideration of this point, added to a knowledge of the force of M. Thiers' mischievous eloquence, may impress upon Napoleon the desire to get out of the Mexican imbroglio at the first opportunity, or upon the first pretext he can find or make. England and Spain showed great good sense in retiring, at the earliest moment, from the complication in which Napoleon had so nearly involved them.—Philadelphia Press.

RESOLUTIONS OF CITY COUNCILS.—At a meeting of the Select and Common Councils of the city of Pittsburgh, held January 29th, 1866, the following preamble and resolutions were read three times and passed:

WHEREAS, At several meetings of the industrial associations of our city, a proposition has been made by ex-Governor Tod, President of the Cleveland and Mahoning Railroad Company, to extend said railroad from its present terminus to this city, without any corporate or private subscriptions on the part of our people, asking only the proper legislation to enable him to do so; and whereas the proposition has met with general favor, and would, if carried out speedily, result in great benefit to our city and county, and enable our manufacturers, merchants and mechanics to forward without delay their goods and merchandise, without (as has frequently been the case) having to wait for days for transportation, and would, to a great extent, prevent the streets of our city in the vicinity of railroad depots from being blockaded from day to day and week to week with loaded drays and wagons: therefore,

Resolved, That we, the representatives of the people of Pittsburgh, earnestly request the Legislature of Pennsylvania to grant to the Cleveland and Mahoning Railroad Company an independent charter to extend the said road from the Ohio state line to the city of Pittsburgh; the wants and necessities of our trade absolutely requiring additional railway facilities, as an outlet for the increased and increasing products of our manufactories and workshops.

Resolved, That we would respectfully urge upon the attention of our legislators at Harrisburg the necessity that exists for the passage of a Free Railroad law, with proper and well-guarded restrictions, providing for the building of railroads anywhere throughout our State, so as to enable our resources to be more easily and thoroughly developed, and leave our people free and independent of railroad monopolies, if any now exist or may hereafter arise.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to each of our representatives at Harrisburg.

Attest: E. S. MORROW,
Clerk Select Council.
HUGH McMASTER,
fe3 Clerk Common Council.

GENERAL NEWS.

ONDEROUS STEAM HAMMER.—In the steam mer, made at the foundry of Merrick & s, in Philadelphia, for the Boston Navy rd, there are four pieces of hammer sides, ghing 101,623 pounds; one cylinder of 22,500 nds; one cylinder bottom of 7450 pounds, bottom piece of an anvil block of 31,500 nds; top entablature of do. do. of 26,900 nds; bit for anvil block of 5080 pounds; do. cylinder of 4500 pounds; six cast-iron braces, weighing 4500 pounds; fourteen do. do. shers of 6674 pounds weight; two base plates 00 pounds; holding down bolts and pieces ghing 7949 pounds; and wrought-iron brace ts, ladders, railing, and boxes of bolts, ose combined weight is 8294 pounds—making rand total of 246,850 pounds, or about 123⅜ s, which has been used in the construction this hammer, which is said to be the largest the kind in use in the United.

E following is related on Senator Wilson's hority:—

A gentleman from New York, in the true rit of philanthropy, established a soldiers' im agency in that city for the collection of ers of bounty and pay free of charge, to er the soldier or the Government, but at a t to himself many thousand dollars. He n found, however, that it was impossible get a single claim through the Depart- nts, and on further investigation discover- the cause of this to be that lawyers and im agents who had exacted fifty per cent or re of the claims for collection, had, out of ir large fees, been able to subsidize clerks the Departments, so as to delay action up- all papers coming from the gratuitous col- tion office in New York, and to thrust aside erything for the prompt disposition of which y were not specially paid."

LETTER from Loupoigne, in Belgium, says: he venerable General Wautier, who, not- thstanding his ninety-five years, went to et his sovereign, Leopold II, when making entrance into Brussels, would be perhaps prised if he knew that there still lives at village of Viesville, near Gosselies, a for- cantiniere of La Tour's dragoons, now 102 rs of age. She is in the enjoyment of all intellectual faculties, takes long walks, even danced the first quadrille, at the fete Thimeon, a village near Viesville, in Sep- nber last. She is fond of relating her life of venture, passed in the midst of camps and ttles. She was at Fleurus in 1794, and during battle gave birth to a son. She only quit- l the army after the death of her husband, return to her native village."

PORTSMEN, BEWARE!—Yesterday (Feb. 1st,) time for killing game of all kinds, except cks and snipe, expired. By the game law this State, pheasants are protected until first of August, woodcock till the 4th of ly, partridges and rabbit till the 1st of Octo- r. The penalty is in all cases a fine of $5, e-half for the use of the informer, who is a mpetent witness. Buying the game shot t of season, is punished by the same penal- , and possession is prima facie evidence of ilt. Swallows, martins, blue birds, and all rds that feed on insects, are protected roughout the whole year, and to break, steal, destroy the eggs or nest of a bird is also nished by fine.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

THE OLD ARISTOCRATIC MANSIONS OF NEW RK.—The New York Times says it is curious, passing through what was formerly fash- nable localities, to see the "base uses" to hich aristocratic mansions have come. The rmer residence of Moses H. Grinnell, in Col- ge-place, so long distinguished for its boun- tul and refined hospitalities, where Daniel ebster, Washington Irving, and other emi- nt men, "most do congregate," is now a "la- r beer saloon." The former residence of e late Robert B. Minturn, in Beech street— thin which dwelt all their is attainable of angelical religion, active benevolence, so- al cultivation, and domestic virtue—is now emigrant boarding-house.

THERE being a great fancy now for Clubs, the ags are declaring that a number of the lady aders of the gay world, having determined revenge themselves on the gentlemen for eir exclusion from the favorite "circles" of e day, have held various meetings with a iew to the formation of a Female Club, from hich all males should be rigidly excluded; at that, owing to the preliminary adoption of resolution declaring that the office of Presi- ent should be held by the oldest member and at of Secretary by the youngest, the project as at last been abandoned, it having been und impossible to find a President, and very one of the members claiming the right be the Secretary.—Paris Letter.

UNITED STATES MINT.—The Gold deposits at he United States mint in the month of Janu- y, amounted to $670,243.69, and the silver pur- hases to $94,873.49—in all, $765,117.48. The gold oinage in the same time amounted to $808,- 54.45, nearly all of which was in double eagles. he silver coinage amounted to $67,298.92, most- y in dollars and half dollars, and the copper oinage to $34,430, being pretty evenly divided n amounts between one, two and three cent ieces—the total coinage of the month amount- ng to $935,183.37. The number of pieces coined 2,155,012. The copper coinage is falling off materially, and especially cents.—Phila. Ledger.

DEATH OF A SISTER OF LORD LYNDHURST.— Mrs. Elizabeth C. Greene died in Boston on Thursday. She was ninety-five years two months and eleven days old, a daughter of ohn Singleton Copley, the celebrated painter, and a sister of the late Lord Lyndhurst, of England. The deceased was the widow of Gardiner Greene, Esq., and was born in Boston. Three years ago, three of the passengers (Lord Lyndhurst and two sisters) who left Marblehead, Mass., for England in the last hip that sailed from this country while it remained under the British flag in 1775, and of hat party there is now but one alive.—Boston Traveller.

WRITING from Vicksburg to the Memphis Daily Post, a correspondent says: "There are indications here that the Government ought not to disregard. It is perfectly evident that as fast as troops are removed from the State, the spirit of the people grows more and more unamiable towards the Northern people and negroes. We hear insulting and savage remarks. Disagreeable predictions are made, which are of a nature to secure their own fulfillment. Some of our Northern business men are said to be growing timid, and there are reports of some of them intending to close out and leave."

THE Daily Enterprise, published at Virginia City, Nevada Territory, announces in its issue of January 7, that the Supreme Court of Nevada has decided that the act of the Territorial Legislature authorizing contracts on a gold basis is unconstitutional, therefore leaving it optional with parties to meet those contracts by payment of legal tender treasury notes. This decision has introduced much excitement, as since the passing of the act all contracts in the Territory, including those with parties residing in other parts of the country, have been on a gold basis.

OUR correspondence from the interior towns of this and neighboring States will be found highly interesting. It will be observed with general satisfaction that voluntary associations for the arrest of the pestilence of intemperance are large and energetic in many of the towns. We are glad to see the legitimate temperance movement resumed. There are, also, a large number of religious revivals and many converts. Another item of good news is, that the wheat looks better within a few weeks than earlier in the winter, and now fairly promises a good crop.—Cin. Com.

A MISSOURI paper announced a short time since that the "wife crop in Gasconade county yielded 15,000 gals." The next week the editor came out with an "erratum—for wife read wine."

CREWE HALL, the residence of Lord Crewe, and one of the finest Elizabethan buildings in England, has been destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $600,000.

Negro Suffrage.

We have a "gentleman of color" in Kittanning who is quite a character in his way. He is a regular dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, opposed to the Emancipation Proclamation, and strongly in favor of slavery. His idea of negro suffrage is rather original. He is opposed to it in toto, assigning as a reason that there is no need of the nigger sufferin', if they will only go to work. He works every day. He don't suffer. Let 'em go to work. Dat's what they were made fur." Still, with all his love for Southern institutions, Aaron would much rather live in this country. He says the climate suits him better, it is more healthy. But he don't want to see any more "dishonerie niggers comin' about."—Kittanning Republican.

A Blow in the Right Direction.

The Fenians appear to be studying the practicabilities of their cause in a new direction, where they can strike a bloodless blow that will be seriously felt by the power that they hate with so much cordiality. The Rochester Express publishes the following resolution which was offered at a meeting of the Rochester Circle of the Fenian Brotherhood, held at their rooms on Tuesday evening last, and unanimously and enthusiastically adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Rochester Circle, F. B., pledge ourselves to refrain from wearing or using after this date, goods, wares, or merchandise of English manufacture.

Securing White Laborers in South Carolina.

The sum of $125,000 has been raised for this object by citizens in and about Charleston, and a charter for organization is granted by the Legislature. A letter from a gentleman of influence in Germany, declares that he can persuade thousands of the people of that country to emigrate to South Carolina if the people will only offer these inducement, which it is within their power to do. Not long since Hon. W. W. Boyce, of South Carolina, in addressing a farewell letter to his constituent, says:

Looking to the great future, I should say the first thing for the South is white immigration; the second thing is white immigration; the third thing is white immigration. You should do everything in your power to invite a white population, both by your legislation and favorable public sentiments. Receive emigrants from Europe and the United States with open arms.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AYER'S AGUE CURE, for the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arises from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

RETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN HAIR TONIC.
THE DRESSING AND RESTORER OF THE AGE
TURKISH BANDOLENIAN.

RETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN. What can be more acceptable than anything that will beautify? that will restore nature's decay by stopping the hair from falling out, restoring its natural color, making it to grow in luxuriance and beauty, assist in putting it up according to the present style and fashion and keep it in place? This Retrouvey's Turkish Bandolenian Hair Tonic will do, and for proof we refer you to any person who has tried it. It is acknowledged to be the beautifier of the age, the only Hair Tonic and Restorer worthy of the name. In Turkey, in France, in England, in America—everywhere where the "Bandolenian" is known—it is pronounced the ne plus ultra of Hair Preparations. Remember, it is free from all metallic poisons that are contained in most Hair Colors and dressings. It is the extract of many flowers and herbs, beautifully put up, an ornament to the toilet.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Almost a Fire.

Yesterday afternoon an occurrence took place in the Third ward Public School building, which, had it not been timely discovered, would have resulted in the destruction of that noble edifice. It would appear that just after school had been dismissed at noon, the Principal, Mr. Gourley, discovered that the main flue, on the first floor, had become heated to such a degree that the wooden work in its proximity had taken fire, and but for his prompt exertions in extinguishing the flames the entire building must have soon been enveloped in a sheet of fire, and consumed to ashes. A year or two since in conversation with Mr. Peter Brady, then a school director for the Third ward, he expressed his fears that the defect in the main flue of the building would one day lead to serious consequences. The fortunate escape of the building from destruction yesterday, by the prompt and well directed exertions of Mr. Gourley, not only proves the soundness of Mr. Brady's conclusions, but significantly points out the duty of the present board of directors, admonishing them to see to it promptly that the flue is so altered and improved that such occurrences cannot by any possibility occur.

The heart-rending catastrophe which occurred some years since in the city of New York should be ever present to the minds of those who assume the responsible duties of School Directors. It is not alone their duty to see that proper teachers are employed, their salaries regularly paid and their duties faithfully performed. Other and higher claims weigh upon them. The health, comfort, lives of the children attending the school, is in a measure committed into their keeping, and the community will not hold them guiltless should they fail to perform their whole duty. Think for a single moment. Had the Third ward school house been filled with little children, all intent [illegible] ... The mere thought will cause many to shudder.

In these remarks, we do not wish to be understood as reflecting upon the School Directors of the Third ward. [illegible] school houses [illegible] other buildings set apart for the reception and entertainment of large assemblies. [illegible] An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, is a [illegible]

In this connection it may not be out of place to refer to another matter. The mode of egress from some of our public buildings is [illegible] ... This latter evil has of late days been remedied to a very considerable extent; still there are buildings yet to be reconstructed to the objection.

Sharp Game.

The Chronicle relates a case of swindling, which, if true, proves conclusively that all the polished rogues are not yet extinct. It is stated that a gentleman (!) some weeks ago called at the establishment of a prominent clothing merchant on Wood street, (name and number not given) and presented a flattering letter of introduction purporting to have been written by a firm in New York with which the Wood street merchant does considerable trade. The letter set forth that the bearer was a particular friend of the firm, was on his way to the oil regions, and should he stop in this city, any favor extended to him would be highly appreciated by the writer. The gentleman spoke of his probable success in his new enterprise, and stated that he had already bought an interest in some territory near Smith's Ferry, at the same time naming two or three gentlemen residing near that place, with whom he alleged he was in partnership. After fully discussing his plans, the stranger said he had paid out all his ready money, and would have to get some bank to cash a check for three thousand dollars, on the First National Bank of New York, drawn by the New York firm, and [illegible] requested the Wood street man to introduce him to some of the officers in one of our banking houses. The Wood street gentleman assented to his request, and the two proceeded to a bank on Fourth street, (what bank?) where, on his presentation with the assurance of our Wood street friend that it "was all right," it was paid. A day or two after the Cashier of the Bank sent it to New York for collection, and shortly after was astonished to learn that it was a forgery. Information was given to the police of the fact, but the "swindler" had decamped for parts unknown.

A Voice from New Brighton.

We give below the following communication from a citizen of New Brighton, dated February 5th, which will explain itself:

Messrs. Editors:—The Beaver Argus comes out for Mr. Ketchum as its choice for Governor of Pennsylvania, which is all right enough, as every man has the right to choose for himself. But I must say that I think the editor is very much mistaken in saying that the man of his choice, is the choice of a large majority of the people of Beaver county. Now I will venture to say that outside of Beavertown there is not one man in a hundred in the county who ever heard of Mr. Ketchum until his name appeared in the last Argus, and the people were very much surprised to learn that there was so great a man in the State and they so ignorant of it. On the other hand, there is hardly not a resident of Beaver county but has heard of General J. K. Moorhead, and know him to be a good and truly loyal man, and one who has done as good service for his country in the Halls of Congress as any of our volunteers in fighting the traitors at home, and who did as much as any other man in the battle field. A working man himself, he has always been in favor of protecting American labor. There are but few men in Pennsylvania who are so well acquainted with the interests and business of the State as General J. K. Moorhead, and no one with superior qualifications for Chief Magistrate of this glorious old Keystone State. Then why should the people of Beaver county want to throw off a man that they know to be all right, and take up one who is only known by a few interested gentlemen in Beaver town.

New Brighton.

Bound to Hang.

Notwithstanding the efforts to save the neck of that unmitigated scamp and cold-blooded murderer, Dr. Hughes, the penalty of the law will be visited upon him. The Sheriff of Cleveland received a letter on Sunday last, from the Governor of Ohio, positively declining to interfere with the execution of the law. Referring to the matter, the Cleveland Leader says the prisoner received the announcement with perfect composure, betraying not the faintest emotion. He had made up his mind to the issue, and expressed himself not at all disappointed, but satisfied in the event of the failure of the effort to secure the commutation of his sentence. He is very cheerful, and enters readily and with abandon into conversation of any sort, in which he seems to become utterly oblivious of his dreadful situation. He relinquishes all hope of a commutation or reprieve and calmly awaits the fate which will be meted out to him on Friday next.

Judge Sterrett's Law.

Messrs. Editors:—It has become almost a proverb that a Railroad Company can do anything it pleases to undertake. The decision of Judge Sterrett, based, as we suppose, on some case of unresisting imbecility in the Supreme Court, seems to confirm the popular impression. The summary edict of this learned Judge appears also to indicate that the city of Allegheny and her forty thousand inhabitants, have no rights which a railroad company is called upon to respect. For nearly forty years Allegheny has quietly submitted to a grievous nuisance from the branch canal through her territory, not one boat passing to the river below Federal street, for a period of nearly twenty years, a stagnant and not unfrequently offensive pool, and now, when abandoned, exercising her merciful authority, is met by a decree of the Judge setting aside the injunction granted to protect her rights from the clutch of a marauding corporation, the spurious offspring of a more gigantic monopoly.

The property in Allegheny city upon which the late Pennsylvania canal was constructed from near the aqueduct to the outlet at the River below—a mere easement of title was granted to the State for the purpose and no other, for extending a Branch to the River, without any compensation to the owners. The State never paid one dollar for the property thus occupied, and which now, abandoned as a canal reverts to the original owners their heirs and the chartered authority of the city, as fully as though the same had never been occupied for a canal. If it is true that Judge Sterrett, in the face of that well established principle of law in the United States that the property of no man can be wrested from him, without due compensation, undertakes to say that the Pa. R. R. has made a good and sufficient title to the North Western Railroad for the bed of the canal, he has made an adjudication which one day or other he will find occasion to regret. Such property when abandoned for the specific object of its original concession is no longer the property of the State or Pennsylvania canal and the Penn'a. R. R., the purchaser of the lease can make no legal title to such property.

I am reminded that a street in the city of Pittsburgh, granted to the State for the bed of the canal, reverted to the city as soon as it was abandoned by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and that all the other property in the city, occupied by the canal in its transit to the Monongahela, has reverted to its original owners. The city of Pittsburgh has filled up and paved Washington street, formerly occupied by the canal, from Liberty street to the river, and paved it, and it is now used as a street. This being so in Pittsburgh, why should a contrary course be pursued in Allegheny?

Meeting and Election of Officers.

A meeting of the stockholders of the National Refining and Storing Company was held at Lafayette Hall yesterday morning, and was organized by calling Major R. M. Munroe to the chair, and appointing Dr. Bachup Secretary.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved, after which the report of the President of the Board of Directors, and the Secretary and Treasurer's report were submitted. These reports made a highly gratifying exhibit of the affairs of the company, the net profits for the past six months enabling them to announce a dividend of forty per cent. The reports were adopted and ordered to be placed on file.

On motion, the day of holding the annual meeting of the stockholders was changed from the second Tuesday of January, to the first Monday of February.

An election for President, Secretary and Treasurer, and Board of Directors to serve for the ensuing year was then held, Dr. Thos J. Gallagher, and Mr. A. M. Hamnett being appointed tellers. The following was the result:

President—A. M. Marshall; Secretary and Treasurer—C. Beringer; Directors—A. M. Marshall, S. H. Keller, James P. Hanna, James Old, Arthur Kirk, Wm. B. Pusey, D. Kirk, D. M. Evans, C. Beringer.

Amusements.

On Friday a grand masquerade and fancy dress ball will be given at City Hall under the auspices of the Vigilant Steam Fire Co. For full particulars see advertisement in another column.

Theatre.—Mr. J. E. McDonough and Miss Sophie Gimber Kuhn are the stars at the theatre this week, and will both appear this evening in the great sensation drama of "Arrah na Pogue, or the Wicklow Wedding." A crowded house greeted them last evening.

Opera House.—Miss Jean Hosmer is the reigning star at this house of popular amusement, and will appear this evening as "Bianca" in the five-act tragedy of "Fazio, or the Italian Wife."

Fancy Dress Soiree.—We had occasion, some time since, to speak approvingly of Prof. Cowper's reunions. By advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that he will give a Grand Fancy Dress Soiree in Wilkins' Hall on Friday evening next, on which occasion the juvenile classes will resign the floor at ten o'clock to the senior classes and others who may desire to participate. A diagram of the hall may be seen at Mellor's, where seats for the evening may be secured.

Grand Oratorio.—We desire to call particular attention to the Grand Oratorio to be given at the Cathedral, on Thursday evening next, under the direction of Prof. J. T. Wamelink. We may add that the German Church Society have consented to lend their valuable aid on this occasion. We need only refer the reader to the programme, in another column, to convince him of the rich treat in store.

Masonic Hall.—Skiff & Gaylord's Minstrels will be at Masonic Hall from Thursday till Saturday. They should remain a month or more.

Ale. Barnett.—We learn that the inimitable humorist, Ali. Barnett, will be in this city on the evenings of the 13th and 14th. There is fun ahead.

Donations to Ministers.

We learn from our religious exchanges that many congregations are engaged in the very praiseworthy and beneficent work of making liberal donations to their pastors. No men are more heavily pressed at this time than those who are depending upon fixed salaries. Although the cost of living has more than doubled, salaries have been increased very little. The venerable Doctor Joseph Stevens, of Fairfield, Westmoreland county; Rev. T. Beveridge, D. D., of Washington; Rev. Alexander Calhoun, of Temperanceville; Rev. Joseph Alexander, of Deer Creek, and many others too numerous to mention, have been made the recipients, lately, of very handsome donations from their respective communities.

Pay Through.

—Mayor McCarthy had a hack driver named James Martin before him yesterday, charged with extortion. The charge sufficiently proven, and the fellow compelled to disgorge his ill gotten gains, and pay a fine of [illegible] dollars and the costs in the bargain. [illegible] the heavy hand of the law upon these [illegible], who are in waiting around the depots, seeking for unsuspecting victims, and soon the community will be rid of their presence.

Death of Dr. Simpson.

—The community will be surprised to hear of the death of Dr. R. B. Simpson, late Surgeon of the Board of Enrollment, which took place yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, at his residence, 62 Fourth street, after a brief illness. Dr. Simpson ranked among the first physicians in this city, and his death may be regarded in the light of a public calamity. He leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to grieve over his sudden and untimely death.

In Durance.

—Samuel Stanley, suspected of being a confederate of Price, the alleged pickpocket, was arrested yesterday, and will have a hearing this morning before His Honor, Mayor McCarthy. Hague has declared war upon pickpockets, and they had just as well depart this locality at once. They are all known and "spotted," and will most assuredly be "nabbed" sooner or later.

New Cars and Later Hours.

—It is stated that a full supply of new and commodious street cars will shortly be placed upon the Pittsburgh and Manchester road, and that they will run until twelve o'clock, midnight. We hope that Madam Rumor is correct and that her predictions may soon be realized, as the interests and accommodation of the public demand the rumored changes.

Warrant Issued.

—Yesterday morning, G. T. Young made information before Alderman Taylor, of the Fifth ward, charging a young boy named Leech with malicious mischief. The prosecutor alleges, that this morning, while driving along the street, having in his wagon a large mirror, to be delivered to a purchaser, the boy threw a pair of skates at it and broke the glass.

Memorial Church.

—The Central Presbytery of Philadelphia has resolved to raise the sum of fifty thousand dollars, for the erection of a Memorial Church, in testimony of their gratitude to the God of nations for the restoration of peace and the preservation of the integrity of the Union.

U. P. Presbyteries.

—Frankfort Presbytery will meet at Hookstown on Tuesday, the 20th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M.

Westmoreland Presbytery will hold an adjourned meeting on Tuesday the 13th inst., at Buena Vista, at 10 o'clock A. M.

Body to be Raised.

—The body of Nevin, the man suspected of having been poisoned by his wife, and for which she is now under arrest, will be exhumed this afternoon, under the direction of Coroner Clawson.

Coal Cars Damaged.

—Yesterday morning four or five coal cars run off the track of the Pittsburgh Railroad, near Wilkensburgh, and were badly injured. Nobody hurt.

Installation.

—Rev. W. M. Paxton, D. D. formerly of this city, was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, New York, on Thursday the 1st inst.

FROM YESTERDAY EVENING'S GAZETTE.

A Warning to Church Loafers—Arrests in Allegheny.

The Allegheny day and night police paid a visit to the various churches, on Sunday night, for the purpose, if possible, of catching "in the act," numerous young men who have been in the habit, lately, of acting in an unbecoming manner, in and about places of religious worship, where—(particularly on cold nights,)—they are wont to congregate in "select" crowds. A number of the force, in charge of Lieutenants McCain, Green, and Chief of Police Elkin, made a descent on certain uproarious parties who meet in and about the colored church, on Water street, and succeeded in capturing six colored men, named Richard Brown, Frank Washington, John Rowen, James H. Manny, George Jones, Alexander Stephenson, and a white man named Miller. Upon a hearing before Mayor Morrison, this morning, his honor read the parties a severe lecture, and discharged Miller. The rest of the party were fined one dollar each, which was paid by their friends, and they were discharged. Mayor Morrison is determined to put a stop to church loafing, and will enforce the law to its fullest extent against all offenders who are hereafter brought before him.

The Fire at Franklin—Loss, $300,000.

The Venango Citizen brings us details of the fire which occurred at Franklin, on Thursday last, and which was briefly reported by telegraph. An entire block was destroyed, embracing seventeen of the most valuable business stands in the town. The fire caught in the New York Hotel, which was destroyed. Next followed McGough & Brigham's new brick, and Stranford's frame. The Spectator office had just been removed into McGough & Brigham's building, and nearly everything was lost. In Stranford's building was the office of the Citizen, Stranford's drug store, a public hall, Lindsay's jewelry store, etc. Very little was saved here. Smith's barber-shop and Wells' book-store were also destroyed. Next came the old Brigham stand, occupied as the postoffice and residence of the postmaster, Robert Brigham, Esq. The mail matter was saved, but Mr. Brigham lost to the amount of seven thousand dollars. Next came Smith & Co's furniture store—loss, $5,000—insured; Keystone Hotel, Jones & Jacobs—loss, $2,000; Vriel's billiard saloon—loss, $4,000; Metzger & Smith, tin and stove shop—loss, $2,000—insured; residence of Mr. Smith; store of W. A. Horton, loss, $1,500—insured. The flames crossed to Plumer corner and destroyed the building of G. W. & A. A. Plumer—loss, $4,000; goods mostly saved. Woodburn's dry goods store and Cooper's grocery, two of the largest stores in town, were next destroyed, but the stocks were mostly saved. The St. Charles Hotel and the Lamberton House soon followed, together with the jewelry store of George E. Kepheart and the shop of W. Robinson, tailor. The proprietor of the St. Charles loses upwards of $660, insured. But Mr. Getty, of the Lamberton House, whose loss is in the neighborhood of $2,000 has no insurance, which unfortunately is the case with Messrs. Kepheart and Robinson, whose respective losses approximate $5,000. Mr. James Lamberton who owned the buildings from the Postoffice to Horton's corner, which are valued at $50,000 is perhaps the heaviest sufferer by the fire, nor are the Messrs. Plumers, who own Plumers' corner and the adjacent buildings, far behind. The St. Charles and the Lamberton House belong to Robert Lamberton, Esq., and his loss cannot be far from $30,000, $9,000 of which is covered by insurance.

It is a source of regret that the only really fine brick block in the Borough, of Messrs. McGough & Bingham, should have fallen before this mammoth fire. Their loss cannot be far from $40,000, part of which is covered by insurance. The Messrs. Stranford are also heavy sufferers, their loss amounting to $38,000, $17,000 of which is covered by insurance.

The fire was the most disastrous which ever happened in the town, and the aggregate loss is put down at $300,000.

Destructive Fire—Machine Shops and Ten Locomotives of the Allegheny Valley Railroad Destroyed.

This (Monday) morning, about four o'clock, fire was discovered issuing from the machine shops of the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, located on the bank of the Allegheny river, near the borough of Lawrenceville. The buildings were temporary wooden structures, and embraced carpenter and blacksmith shops under one roof, together with a wooden building for the sheltering of the locomotive engines belonging to the company. The flames spread with great rapidity, and owing to the isolated situation of the building, little or nothing could be done to check the fire. In a short time the whole was a mass of smoking ruins. The destruction of the machine and carpenter shops was complete, and the machinery, tools, etc., will either be destroyed or seriously damaged. There were eleven locomotives in the engine house, ten of which belonged to the company, and one to the Pithole Oil Company, which had been purchased in the east, and had been temporarily stored here, awaiting shipment. The engines are all more or less injured; but, as the building was not a heavy one, the damage from heat will not be so great as might be supposed. The company have but three locomotives aside from those in the house, but they will be able to secure enough engines from the other roads to enable them to carry on their business without interruption. The work of repairing the damaged engines will be commenced as soon as they are cool enough to handle, so that the business of the road will not suffer. The other rolling stock of the company was secured elsewhere and escaped uninjured, with the exception of one or two cars which were being repaired. The loss falls very heavily on the company, but it will be met promptly and manfully, and the damage repaired as speedily as possible.

The origin of the fire has not been definitely ascertained, but it is supposed to have caught from excessive heating of some of the stoves. There were four or five watchmen in and about the shops, but none of these seem to know how the fire started. We learn from Col. William Phillips, the President pro tem., that the company is not insured. As yet, it is impossible to estimate the extent of the loss, as the fire prevents a satisfactory examination of the premises.

Beecher's Lecture.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher will deliver his first lecture under the auspices of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association, in City Hall, on Tuesday evening, subject: "Work and Workmen." Although Mr. Beecher is considerably erratic, both in theology and politics, he is, nevertheless, one of the greatest men, and most original thinkers in the country, and his universally acknowledged ability will attract an immense audience. Owing to some misapprehension it was announced in some of the morning papers that seats could be secured on Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, and a large crowd assembled at City Hall at that hour. As will be seen from the advertisement of the Lecture Committee, in another column, seats can be secured at City Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, at 10 o'clock.

On former occasions the Library lectures commenced at 7½ o'clock, but in order to afford those who may attend prayer meeting in their churches, an opportunity of hearing Mr. Beecher's lecture on "Reconstruction" on Wednesday evening, the Committee have very properly and with commendable foresight, fixed 8 o'clock as the hour for both evenings, as will be seen in the advertisement.

An impression prevails in some quarters that season tickets would not be good for Mr. Beecher's lectures. We are authorized by the Committee to say that this is a mistake. Seats can be secured on season tickets as on former occasions.

The Body of Captain Alexander Heasly.

Editors Gazette:—You will confer a favor on a large number of friends by making known, through the columns of your paper, that the body of Captain Alexander Heasly, who came to his death at the hands of three cowardly assassins, in Augusta, Georgia, on the 20th of last August, arrived at his former residence, at Pulaski, Lawrence county, Pa., on the 29th ult., and was interred at the above named place on the 31st, where a large number of friends and acquaintances assembled to pay their tribute of respect to the deceased.

Captain Heasly, actuated by motives of pure patriotism, enlisted in the 100th Pennsylvania regiment, and remained with that regiment till the following spring, when he became an officer in the First South Carolina Colored Infantry, and subsequent to that being ordered to Hilton Head by General Saxton, he recruited Company K of the Thirty-Third United States colored troops, and served in the capacity of Captain in that regiment up till the time of his untimely end.

It is justly due the memory of Capt. Heasly to say that he was regarded by all who knew him as a young man of great ability, and by his uprightness in business and exemplary deportment he had endeared himself to all with whom he was acquainted, and in his death his father (Samuel Heasly) and near relatives have suffered a trying and irreparable loss; his associates a kind and genial companion; and our country a noble patriot. A Railroad Scrimmage at Oil City.

We noticed recently the arrest of the borough authorities of Oil City, at the instance of certain property holders, on account of granting the right of way to the Oil City & Pithole Railroad Company for passing through the streets of the town. The Burgess and Town Council were taken to Franklin where they gave bail for the offense and were discharged. It appears, however, that the difficulty did not end here. On Saturday following, great excitement was occasioned by a formidable raid on the part of the employees of the Erie Railroad, upon the track of the Oil City & Pithole Railroad, which they tore up. It seems that both roads claim the right of way, and after the Erie men had quit work the other party began laying track. When the Erie Railroad men heard of this they gathered themselves together (after the manner of the citizens of Erie, in the days of the memorable railroad war,) to the number of two hundred, and tore up about forty feet of the track and threw the ties and rails over the embankment. Preparations were also made to blow up the bank and throw it over the rival road, and a watch was organized to prevent the Pitholians from resuming work. At last accounts, however, the officers and employees of the Erie road had been arrested, and held for trial, and "order reigned in Warsaw." Railroad enterprises and litigations are decidedly the order of the day in the oil region.

A Sunday Night's Dance.

A number of Germans, not having regard for either the laws of God or man, have for some time past been in the habit of congregating every Sabbath at the residence of one Gotleib Over, on Carpenter's alley, Allegheny, where they had music, dancing and a full supply of beer. Last night a party were annoying the neighborhood by keeping time to the music of an accordeon, and officers Green, Hess, Teets and Smith being at hand, made a descent on the premises and succeeded in capturing three of the male inmates, named Wm. F. Mosler, Gotleib Frank and George Over. The parties, assisted by their wives, made a desperate effort to escape, but the police were too strong for them, and they were conducted to the tombs, where they remained all night. Upon a hearing before the Mayor this morning, Over was fined ten dollars, and the others two dollars each and costs. The police deserve credit for their conduct, as at one time there was danger from an attack of outsiders, who had congregated in the neighborhood.

Pennsylvania Postoffice Affairs.

—The following orders and appointments are announced: Establish office at Granville, Mifflin county, and appoint Walter L. Owens postmaster; situated about three miles from Lewistown. Discontinue Glen Oak, Indiana county. Papers should now go to Mahoning. Appoint John C. Stevenson postmaster, Colerain Forge, Huntingdon county, vice David Stewart, resigned. Matthew Cochran postmaster, Minta, Indiana county, Mrs. C. B. Shaw, resigned. North Sewickley, Beaver county, vice James Paton, resigned.

After the Sunday Liquor Sellers.

—Mayor McCarthy is after the Sunday liquor sellers "with a sharp stick," having instructed all his policemen to keep a sharp look out for offenders of this class. Two informations were made this morning—one against Mr. Robitzer, saloon keeper in Diamond alley, and the other against Mr. McClinton, whose tavern is located in the Diamond. They are both charged with selling on yesterday. Warrants have been issued, and the accused will have a hearing in a day or two.

Another Outrage.

—It is alleged upon reliable authority, that Hogan and Walsh, whose names appear in another item, attempted to rob one of the drivers on the Pittsburgh and Manchester Passenger Railway, last Friday night. It is alleged that they seized the horses attached to one of the cars and compelled the driver to hand over a sum of money. An information for this offense has been lodged against them before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny.

Finally Committed.

—John Price, arrested by officer Moon for attempting to pick pockets at the Central Skating Park, has been finally committed for trial by Mayor McCarthy, an information for larceny having been made against him by a lady whom he had robbed of a pocket-book containing seven or eight dollars. Price hails from Detroit, and is said to be a professional thief.

To be Disinterred.

—The body of J. Nevin, alleged to have been poisoned by his wife, who is now in jail on a charge of murder, is to be raised to-morrow, by Coroner Clawson, preparatory to having the contents of the stomach analyzed. The Coroner has concluded to pay the expense of the carriage hire out of his own pocket.

Railroad Collision.

—This morning about three o'clock, a freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, ran upon an empty coal train, on the siding at Wilkinsburg, doing no damage, however, beyond smashing two or three of the coal cars.

There is but little change to note in the gold premium—quoted at 140 in New York. Government bonds were quoted as follows: 1881's, 103¾; Five Twenties, 103; Ten Forties, 94¼; Seven Thirties, first series, 99⅝; second, 99¼; third, 99; Certificates, 98⅜.

In our market there was nothing done to-day worthy of special notice. Bank shares are in request, and it is said that there was a sale of three hundred shares of Exchange last week at 65, and it is now held pretty firmly at this figure. Citizens' is in request, with 84½ offered to-day, which is an advance. M. & M. is wanted at 60, and but little offering. Nothing doing in Oil or Insurance stocks.

Private telegrams from New York to-day quote Benneboff Run at 16¾, against 17 on Saturday; Pit-hole Creek, 8¾, and United States 18¾. In Philadelphia, Dalzell sold to-day at 1¾, and Maple Shade at 4¼@4½. Quite a number of parties in this city are investing in all of the above stocks, on speculation, in anticipation of an advance.

—Quincy, which may be called the great mine of Lake Superior, with a capital of $200,000, has earned and expended in buildings, machinery and lands, about $600,000. It has divided $700,000 to stockholders, and reserved in available means about $222,000. Pewabic, with a capital of only $75,000, has expended in like manner about $600,000, divided $580,000, and reserved $100,000. Franklin, with a capital of $170,000, has expended about $500,000, divided $220,000, and reserved $100,000. This shows what kind of investments they have been during the few years since they were opened.

—The imports of foreign merchandise of the single port of New York during the past six months amount in value to $149,000,000, against only $84,000,000 during the corresponding period in the previous year. An increase of $65,000,000 at one port of entry within six months.

—The total imports at all the ports in the United States during the year ending June 30, 1865, amounted to $234,000,000. If we continue importing at the same rate as now for the balance of the fiscal year, our imports of foreign goods will amount to the sum of $350,000,000.

—The new loan bill is quite as broad as Mr. McCulloch requires, and comprises every power necessary to enable him to work back to specie payments. To fund the Seven-Thirties, the compound notes, legal-tenders, etc., bonds may be issued (we quote the act of March 3, 1863, which is to be extended):

"Payable at any period not more than forty years from date of issue, or may be made redeemable, at the pleasure of the government, at or after any period not less than five years nor more than forty years from date, or may be made redeemable and payable, as may be expressed upon their face; and so much thereof as may be issued in Treasury notes may be made convertible into any bonds authorized by this act, and may be of such denominations—not less than $50—and bear such dates and be made redeemable or payable at such periods as in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury may be deemed expedient. And the interest on such bonds shall be payable semi-annually; and on Treasury notes authorized by this act the interest may be paid semi-annually, or annually, or at maturity thereof; and the principal, or interest, or both, may be made payable in coin or in other lawful money; provided that the rate of interest on any such bonds or Treasury notes, when payable in coin, shall not exceed six per cent per annum; and when not payable in coin shall not exceed 7 3-10 per cent per annum.—N. Y. Tribune.

Review of the New York Grocery Market

(From the Commercial List, Feb. 3.)

Coffee—The market for the various descriptions has been very quiet since our last, but there is a steady firm feeling, especially for the better grades, which alone are much in request. The sales are 280 bags Rio, per Die Ernte, at 13¾ cents gold, in bond; 500 Maracaibo 23@23½ gold; and 436 Laguayra, on private terms.

Sugar—The late considerable reductions in price of raw have induced a better demand from refiners and the Trade, who have come forward pretty freely, and the sales are larger than for some time past; the market, in consequence, has assumed a much steadier tone, and though we notice no advance, there is evidently a firmer feeling at the currency of Tuesday last. The first arrival of new crop came to hand 31st ult., per Wm. Muir, from Cienfuegos (122 hhds) and has not yet been disposed of. Refined, too, with a more active demand, closes steadily at 17@17½ cents for hard, 15@16½ for soft white, and 14@15½ for yellow. The sales of raw are 1455 hhds Cuba, at 9@12¼ cents; 260 hhds handsome St. Jago, 13½; 20 hhds Porto Rico, 12¾; 10 hhds and 94 bbls Clarified Demerara, 14¾@15; 490 hhds Martinique, 10¾@11; 2437 bxs Havana, 8½@14¼; and 15 hhds Melado, 6¾, 4 mos. By auction, 20 casks Dutch crushed (damaged) sold at 16¼ cents, cash.

Spices—There is generally a firm feeling in the market, but the business as yet is not large; we notice 6381 bags Penang pepper, in bond, afloat per Casilda, 1000 piculs, to arrive; 150 bags Race Ginger, 250 cases nutmegs, previous to arrival, a resale on terms not made public; 50 bags African Bird Peppers, 34@35c; Mace, in lots, $1.10@1,12; 2000 mats Cassia, 73@75 cents; 100 cases do, 70@71, currency; 100 bags Pimento, 21; and No. 1 Nutmegs, in lots, 88@90, gold.

Rice—There is rather more inquiry, and we notice sales of 25 tcs Carolina at $13¼@12; 500 bags Rangoon, for home use, $9,50@10, currency, and latterly, about 1500 do, in bond, have changed hands at $3.75@4 gold.

New York Metal Market.

New York, Feb. 3.—There is an increasing demand for Scotch pig at full prices —receipts light; but American is neglected, and with some accumulation of stocks in the interior, holders evince a disposition to make some concessions in prices. Of Scotch, we notice 1000 tons Glengarnock, to arrive, 300 do Eglinton, to go east, on terms not made public; 1500 do Coltness, $53,50; 375 do Glengarnock, in lots, $49,50, ex-ship; and 100 do from yard, $50, cash. 25 tons wrought scrap sold at $45; and 350 do on private terms. Bar from store, is steady at our quotations—from first hands we hear of no transactions, except 1000 bdls English sheet, Nos. 22 and 24, at 7c, cash.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette, Monday, Feb. 5, 1866.

The produce markets continue very dull and depressed, and as there is still considerable difference between the views of buyers and sellers, we have but few round lot operations to report. There is really nothing doing beyond the extent of supplying the immediate wants of consumers, as buyers are looking for concessions corresponding to the decline in gold from the high premiums which prevailed before the restoration of peace. On 'Change there was a very good attendance today, and while there was a considerable amount of produce offered, the sales were very light.

GRAIN—Wheat is very dull, and the supply at present is considerably in excess of the demand. We can report a sale of fifteen hundred bushels prime Armstrong County Rye at 72. Oats quiet and unchanged—48 to 50 for small lots from store. Ear Corn is in demand, while Shelled is in good supply and very dull; small sales at 70 to 75. Nothing doing in Barley.

FLOUR—Market quiet, demand light, and prices nominally unchanged. Small sales from store at $8 to $8½ for Spring Wheat, and $10 to $10½ for Winter Wheat brands. Sale of 100 bbls "White Star"—half Spring and half Winter Wheat—$9½@9¼; 150 bbls Spring at $8¼; 50 do Winter at $10,40; 65 do on private terms; and 100 bbls "Mad River," a fancy brand, at $11¾. Rye and Buckwheat Flour remain unchanged and dull.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady, with a fair jobbing demand at 15@15½ for Shoulders; 18@18½ for Sides, and 24½@25 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is still quoted at 16@17 for country, and 18½@19 for prime kettle. Dressed Hogs may be quoted at 11@12. Nothing doing in Mess Pork or Bulk Meats.

SEEDS—A small sale of Timothy Seed was effected on 'Change at $2¼, which is considered below market price. Sale of 33 bags Clover Seed, not strictly prime, at $6½. Flaxseed is selling on arrival at $2,70@2,75.

POTATOES—In fair demand and steady with regular sales at $3½ per bbl, and $1,15@1,20 per bushel.

DRIED FRUIT—Quiet and unchanged. Small sales from store at 14@16 for Apples—Peaches at 18@20 for quarters and 23@25 for halves.

BUTTER—Is steady with an improved demand, but prices have undergone no change—30 to 35, for good to strictly prime Roll.

EGGS—Quoted at 30 to 33.

CHEESE—Sales of Hamburg at 21 and Goshen at 22.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette, Monday, Feb. 5, 1866.

The market for Crude is quiet but steady, with some inquiry for future delivery, and a sale of five thousand barrels is reported to have been consummated to-day at 20 cents, bbls returned, to be delivered on the opening of navigation; also, one thousand barrels—last week but not before reported—40 to 47 gravity, same price and delivery. On the spot, quotations may be fairly given at 20, bbls returned, and 25, bbls returned, and the stock is being slowly but steadily reduced. For Refined, in bond, there is some inquiry, both for present and future delivery, but the figures named by buyers are not large enough to please holders, and, consequently, we have no transactions to record. The former are offering about 43@43½ on the cars here, and 50@51, delivered in Philadelphia, but, as already stated, without finding sellers. Free Oil is dull and entirely nominal at 64@65. Residuum is quoted at $4,75@5 per bbl. No demand whatever for Naptha.

A telegram from Oil City under date of Saturday evening says: "In the Rouseville market Crude Oil remains firm at $5, and there is but little disposition on the part of holders to sell. Oil is scarce at the wells, as large quantities have been bought upon speculation, and is held for a rise."

PETROLEUM STOCKS IN NEW YORK.

Special Dispatch to Western Press.

New York, February 5, 1866.

The petroleum stock market is steadily recovering from the depression of last week, and the prices are all better this morning. The greatest activity and largest advance is on Palmer, Bennehoff Run, Pit Hole Creek, and United States. This afternoon the market is a little lower on Bennehoff, Pit Hole and United States, but quite firm on the balance of the list. Bennehoff Run, 16,60; Brevoort, 5,75; Empire and Pit Hole, 75; Excelsior, 80; Empire City, 35; New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore Consol. 87; Oceanic, 30; Oil Creek, 2,70; Pit Hole Creek, 8,26; Shade River, 1,80; United Petroleum Farms, 33; United States, 18,50; Bennehoff and Pit Hole, 155; Palmer, 3,45; Venango and Pit Hole, 4,00; Heydrick Bros., 50; Germania, 20; Hamilton McClintock, 190, after call 5,00; Bradley, 32; First National 46.

Boston Iron Market.

Boston, Feb. 3.—The market for pig is dull, with a downward tendency, though as yet without quotable change in rates. The stock of foreign available for present use is quite limited, but large invoices are due and will soon be pressed upon the market. The domestic article is coming forward more freely, and at a reduction in the cost of production corresponding to the decline in coal. Manufactured iron is also dull, and rather unsettled, in view of the proposition now before Congress, to abolish the excise tax on this branch of industry, instead of increasing the tariff protection.

We note small sales of Scotch Pig No. 1 at $52@55 per ton for the best brands, the inside figure for lots to arrive. American is selling in small lots at $50@60 per ton, for the different numbers. Charcoal pig firm at $55@65 per ton, cash. Bar iron is in limited demand and lots from store are selling at $115@120 for English common; $125@130 per ton do refined. American refined bar is selling at $115@120 per ton from manufacturers' hands, and $125@128 from store. Railroad iron is selling at $57@60, gold, per ton for English, and $85@87½, currency, for American. Boiler plates are in fair demand at 9c for flanges, 7c for C No. 1, and 6½c per pound for common and tank. Russia sheet is quiet, at 30@37 per lb. English do is firm at 7½@10½c. Nails are selling at 7c per lb for assorted sizes.—Bulletin.

Boston Wool Market.

Boston, Feb. 3—Sales of domestic for the week foot up some 450,000 lbs, at a range of 50@80c for fleece, and 55@75c for pulled. There are but few straight lots of fleece wool upon which more than 75c can be realized, and this must now be considered the outside rate for choice Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Small lots of picklock selected from fancy clips, are selling as high as 80@85c, but the quantities taken at these rates are very insignificant. The transactions include 20,000 lbs mixed western fleece at 55c; 10,000 lbs good New York do, 65c; 25,000 lbs Ohio medium do, 63@65; 10,000 lbs Washington Co. do, 75c; 10,000 lbs extra pulled, 72c; 10,000 lbs choice do do, 75c; 15,000 lbs super do, 65c; and small lots of Eastern do, 70c. Canada combing is firm, and in few hands, with small sales at 75@80c, as to grade, and some lots of choice selected are held at 85c. In foreign, we hear of a considerable movement of South American wool, in anticipation of higher tariff rates. Unfavorable reports as to quality and condition of the new crop of that description, have also influenced buyers to come into the market. Sales 450 bales Mestiza on private terms, the market closing firm at a range of 32@36c. The market is nearly bare of Cape, but we note sales of small lots at 40@47c, the outside figure for a choice article.—Bulletin.

New York Dry Goods Market.

New York, February 5—Hoop Skirts—Bradley's Duplex Eliptic, 20 to 50 hoops, 87½c@$1,05; Empress Trail, $1,25. Bleached Shirtings—Forrest Dale, 35c; Bay Mills, 40c; Bates, BB, 33c; Dwight, 36 inches, 35c; Dwight, 31 inches, 29c. Prints—Cocheco, 24c; Pacific, 27½c; Hamilton, 22½c; Amoskeag, 21½c; Arnold's, 20c. Delaines—Hamilton Woolen Company, 29c; Armures, 30c. Ginghams—Glasgow, 27c; Hartford, 24c. Cambrics—Washington, 22c; Victory, 20. Silesias—Massapequa, 40c; Clinton, 35c. Canton Flannels—Naumkeag, 35c; Nashua, 30. Ticks—Whittenden, A, 47½c; Thorndyke, 34½c; Arrasapha, 20c; Eagle, 30c. Denims—Pearl River, 34c; Wide World, 37½c; Warren Brown, 37c.

There is a slight improvement in the market to-day. Bleached and brown goods are decidedly better.

Mining Stocks.

New York, February 5.—The prices of Mining Stocks bid in Boston to-day were as follows: Copper Falls, 26¾; Franklin, 37; Hancock, 14½; Isle Royal, 14; Minnesota, 10; Quincy, 53; Bay State, 39; Boston Water Power, 23¾.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

Finance and Trade in New York.

New York, Feb. 5.—The Stock market opens extremely dull. The entire transactions at the regular Board this morning amounted to only about 1,000 shares. The Finance bill hangs as a dead weight upon the market. Wall street is just now commencing to anticipate the effects of Mr. McCulloch's measures, and although that cause may break the force of the ultimate inevitable crisis, yet it must produce henceforth a weak and steadily decreasing market and a general stagnation of business.

The bank statement exhibits a continued departure from the ease lately prevalent. The loans are still increasing, simultaneously with a decrease in deposits and legal tenders. The deposits show a reduction of over four millions, and the legal tenders of one-and-a-half millions, which is compensated for by an increase of $528,357 in circulation. The large drain of specie for custom duties has produced a further decline of $2,169,285 in this class of deposits. The increase in loans is probably largely due to the deposits made in the Sub-Treasury previous to the reduction of the rate of interest to 5 per cent.

The Stock Market continues perturbed by uncertainty as to the fiscal policy of the Government, and by conflicting opinions as to the possibility of Mr. McCulloch's reducing the currency, while his short date obligations are so large.

Money is easy, but capitalists are averse to undertaking many obligations except for very short periods. Governments are a fraction firmer this afternoon on the Five-Twenty bonds, but otherwise unchanged.

There was a firmer feeling in the stock market at the second regular and last Boards, and a general rally in prices. There was a better demand for stocks, especially for Erie and Michigan Southern.

The following were the closing prices at 4:30 P. M.:—Ohio Certificates, 24½@24 2-3; New York Central, 87¾@87⅞; Erie, 76⅞@75⅞; Hudson River, 99⅞@100; Reading, 99¾; Michigan Southern, 67⅞@67¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 81⅝@81¾; Rock Island, 99⅞@99⅝.

Gold closed up steadily at 139⅞@139¾. Cash gold has been loaned to-day at 1-16@¼ per cent.

General trade remains dull, and there is no improvement to notice in prices, in any direction.

The Post says that Wall Street is depressed to-day, and among the causes of this feeling is the less favorable interpretation given to the Bank statement.

Gold is weaker and dividends are more freely made. The loan market is rather more active, but there is little business doing, and the rate is six per cent. with exceptional transactions at five per cent. Commercial paper is dull, at 7@7½ for prime names.

The stock market is extremely feverish and the tendency is to lower prices on railroad shares. Governments are firm; new Five-Twenties and Ten-Forties are being held for higher prices.

New York Cattle Market.

New York, Feb. 5.—The cattle market to-day opened quite dull and heavy, with a supply of 2,900 head of cattle on sale, most of which were of a fair average grade, but there were a number of course cattle which were not wanted, butchers having a goodly number of bullocks left over from last week, they felt no disposition to operate, and not until a very late hour could any business be effected. Holders report a decline of ½c, but they have to allow a little better weight, while prices show no variation. The total number of cattle sold yesterday was 250 head, which strengthened the market a little. Prices ranged from 11@17c with a few at 17@19c, but there were but a small number sold over 17c.
